Michelle Milligan
Dept. of State

Dear Michelle Milligan,

As per our conversation via telephone regarding the dissolution of the above corporation due to non-payment of corporate taxes, I personally checked my bank records but was unable to find the cancelled check from the Department of State. I was able to find another check I wrote regarding a separate non-profit tennis program that the State Department received (enclosed). I also sent another check to the Department of Revenue during this same time (of which they had not received) leading me to believe that several letters that I sent out via mail never arrived at their destination which I was not aware of until I had either received notice of a late or non payment of fees or in this case the dissolution of my corporation (which I wasn't aware of until I attempted to open a new bank account and was told by the financial institution that my corporation had been dissolved in 1999).

Per your instructions I am enclosing a check for $300.00 to reinstate this corporation asap hoping this fee will satisfy any and all financial requirements that had not been paid in 1999. Thank you for your help and consideration in this important matter!

Sincerely,

Christopher L. Sands
President/CEO
