Dear Ms. Cushing:

On September 6, 2000, a Florida 2000 Uniform Business Report was filed on behalf of each of the above-referenced entities. In each case, your office rejected the filed report because the "General Partner Information" was deleted without an accompanying Certificate of Amendment to Certificate of Limited Partnership. To effect the change otherwise indicated by such a deletion, it would have been necessary for such a certificate to have been provided with the filed report.

As I indicated to you earlier today by telephone, the "General Partner Information" was incorrectly deleted on the filed reports. Accordingly, there is no need to file such Certificates of Amendment with the Uniform Business Reports and such reports should be accepted as filed.

Enclosed please find the Uniform Business Reports, as originally filed, with the added notation to "DISREGARD ANY CHANGES TO THE ITEMS SHOWN IN BLOCK 12." Attached to each report is the original check representing payment of the fees due and the cover letters your office sent with the returned reports. As agreed, the amount due in respect of each report should remain unchanged despite the fact that the due date for such reports has now passed and additional fees would otherwise be due.
