Dear Ms. Tadlock:

I spoke to you briefly this week concerning the amount of capital contributions of the limited partners for the above partnerships. I have researched our files and found that the original affidavits of capital contributions that were originally filed with your office contained incorrect (and as you may recall, contradictory) information. The capital contributions of the limited partners has always been and remains at $99.00 for each partnership. I have enclosed Supplemental Affidavits for both of these partnerships showing the correct amount. I am also enclosing all of the remainder of the paperwork that was returned to me from your office. I hope this takes care of everything needed to file the annual reports. If not, please contact me. Thank you.

Yours very truly,
