Dear Ms. Shoffstall:

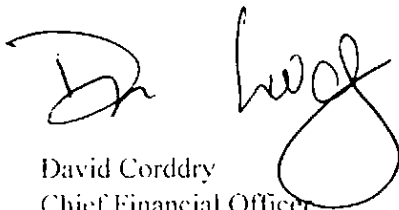

I am writing in response to your letter dated January 8, 2019. Your letter requests a certificate of good standing for a limited partnership that is registered in Delaware that we are attempting to register in Florida

There are two documents attached to satisfy your request. First, the state of Delaware allows you to purchase a certificate of good standing via an online transaction for $10. The first page shows that the online transaction will not produce a certificate of good standing but rather enable you to print a page showing the standing of the entity. The second page that is attached is printed from the internet and shows that the entity is in good standing.

I have spoken with the state of Delaware and they have confirmed that this is the current method to prove an entities status.

I have attached the original application by a foreign limited partnership. Thank you for your help in completing this registration and please contact me via the phone number or email address please should you need any other information.

Sincerely,
