To Whom It May Concern:

After talking to one of the employee's at your office, I was informed that these two UBR forms I was about to send in were second notices and that the first ones were sent in earlier in the year. I looked at the front of the mailing at nothing was said about first or second notices.

I did not receive the first forms and after talking to this worker, she suggested that I pay the first monies owed and write a letter explaining the late payment.

I would appreciate it if you relieve me of any late payments because of the mailing mix up.

Thank you for your consideration,

Frank Maggiolo
