SECTION 4.1 Nothing contained herein shall be construed as an intent to evade or contravene any law or tax, nor to delegate to its use any special power belonging exclusively to corporate law or to a franchise of incorporation. The expressed intent of the Parties to this Contract is to create a Trust for the benefit of the Trust Capital Unit Certificate Holders to begin at once and not deferred until after the death of any Creator. In administering the Trust assets according to the Trust Contract and Indenture, and as a part of the consideration of this Contract, the Board of Trustees shall act solely upon their rights under the Common Law of the United States of America, the powers, immunities and limitations of this instrument, and their rights under the Constitutions referred to in Article 1 Section 1 of this Contract.

ARTICLE FIVE DOMICILE AND NAME

SECTION 5.1 This Trust shall be originally domiciled in the State of Florida and shall be interpreted and construed under the common laws of the United States of America and Florida in comportment with the Constitutions referred to in Article 1 Section 1 of this Contract. The name of this American common law Contract Trust is: THE PETRIE FOUNDATION

SECTION 5.2 This Trust is domiciled in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE SIX BENEFICIAL ENJOYMENT

SECTION 6.1 Each distribution, whether a payment of income or distribution from the trust corpus assets, or any other action affecting the beneficial enjoyment of the property of this Trust, shall be approved and exercised only written agreement of all Trustees to this Trust and shall be in furtherance of the benefit of the capital unit holders.

ARTICLE SEVEN RESTRICTIONS

SECTION 7.1 Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize this Trust to issue certificates for the capital units of this Trust in excess of the number herein provided. At no time shall the number of capital units exceed one hundred (100).

ARTICLE EIGHT CERTIFICATES AND CAPITAL UNITS

SECTION 8.1 The Trust certificates, as a convenience and for the purposes of distribution, are divided into one hundred (100) capital units or parts thereof. They are non-assessable, non-taxable, non-negotiable, and have an undeterminable value. No certificate holder may transfer any unit or part thereof to anyone else without the unanimous approval of the Board of Trustees. Ownership of a certificate and the capital units represented thereby shall not entitle the holder to any equitable or legal title in or to the assets (corpus) of the Trust nor any say or power in the management thereof.

SECTION 8.2 No capital unit certificate shall be subject to or liable for attachment, execution, or any other processes of law. No capital units certificate holder shall have the right to encumber, hypothecate, or alienate his/her interest in this Trust, voluntarily or involuntarily or in any manner whatsoever. This Trust may only be terminated with the unanimous consent of the Board of Trustees and approval of all of the current certificate holders which shall total one hundred (100) capital units unless through distributions that number has been reduced.

SECTION 8.3 It is the Creator's expressed intent that if any capital unit certificate holder of this Trust shall contest in any court the validity of this Trust, its management, or in any manner attempt to nullify or set aside this Trust or any of its provisions, the Trustee(s) is/are authorized to defend, at the expense of the Trust, any contest or attack by a capital unit certificate holder or any other person or entity challenging the validity of the Trust or of any of its provisions. The filing in any court of any document evidencing a challenge to this Trust by a capital unit certificate holder will automatically terminate such certificate and the capital units shall be canceled and returned to the Trust and divided and distributed to the remaining certificate holders, if any, pro rata.

SECTION 8.4 Any third party may rely upon the list of capital unit certificate holders as contained in Schedule "C" in all transactions with the Trustee(s) or on behalf of the Trust, and that list is intended to represent a clear and definite means for the ascertainment of the beneficiaries of this Trust.

SECTION 8.5 Any capital unit certificate holder may waive rights to any distribution of income or corpus assets by a declaration of such waiver delivered to the Board of Trustees prior to the date when such distribution shall take place. If a certificate holder delivers such waiver, it shall be as if such certificate holder did not hold any capital unit, except that any waiver shall not extend to any distribution not specifically noted in such waiver. As to all distributions hereunder, the Board of Trustees shall be the sole judge of the date or dates during the calendar year when any distribution shall be made.

SECTION 8.6 Respecting all distribution rights, the degree or relationship of any certificate holder shall be determined by the number of capital units held at the time of distribution. No future benefit to a certificate holder under a Trust estate settlement shall form or constitute a portion of any communal or joint estate of such certificate holder but shall remain the separate and exclusive property of said certificate holder; should such certificate holder be married or marry in community of property, then any benefit shall be expressly excluded from the community; and if the certificate holder is married, such benefit shall also be free from the interference or control of any spouse.

SECTION 8.7 If at the time of corpus disbursements or income payments a certificate holder is deemed incompetent, payment to such certificate holder may be made in any of the following ways as disbursements by the Trustee(s) in the Board of Trustees' discretion in whose opinion will be most beneficial to the certificate holder:

- a). Directly to the certificate holder;
- b). To their legal representative;
- c). To their near relative;
- d). By the Board, making direct payments for the benefit of the certificate holder.

A person shall be deemed incompetent if such person is a minor, or under any lawful disability, (as defined in Section 1.1 of this Contract) or if incapacitated so as to make it impossible or impracticable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters. The Board of Trustees may act upon such evidence as it reasonably deems appropriate and reliable without liability by reason thereof, including, a receipt from a certificate holder, a lawful guardian, relative, or a friend, which shall be sufficient discharge to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall have the authority to utilize an appointed guardian if one has been so delegated in this instrument or any minutes thereof or appoint a guardian for incompetent certificate holders if deemed advisable.

SECTION 8.8 If it is determined that there is income distributable to certificate holders and/or income taxable to this Trust if not distributed to the certificate holders, the Board of Trustees may, but is not required to, distribute such income so as to prevent such income from being taxable to the Trust. The Board of Trustees shall make a determination on an annual basis as to whether the Trust organization is subject to any tax and, if so, whether it will be considered as simple or complex in accordance with any tax it might be subject to for that year. If after any distribution, any income remains, it shall be deemed to be principal and allocated to the corpus of this Trust. The Board of Trustees shall make a determination as to the existence or the non-existence of distributable income at convenient intervals not greater than annually.

SECTION 8.9 At the creation of this Trust, all capital units shall be issued by the Board of Trustees to the Creator unless in a concurrent writing the Creator directs such units or any part of such units be issued to a designee indicated or to be indicated by him. The initial and future transfer and any subsequent re-issues of capital units shall be recorded by the Board of Trustees in the records of this Trust. Such records and certificates issued shall be conclusive proof of the proper holder of any capital units issued by the Board.

ARTICLE NINE CHALLENGE TO TRUST

SECTION 9.1 This Contract shall be construed and regulated under the Laws of the United States of America and in comportment with the Constitutions enumerated in Article 1 Section 1 of this Contract. This Trusts proper venue and jurisdiction for any actions at law shall be those courts operating under Article Five of the Florida Constitution or Article Three of the Constitution for the United States of America. Proper venue shall only lie with any Court operating in its full judicial capacity at law.

ARTICLE TEN CONTRACT SURVIVAL CLAUSE

SECTION 10.1 Any article, section or subsection of this Contract that is challenged legally and lawfully and found to be illegal, unlawful, void or unenforceable for any reason or operation of law shall only apply to that article, section or sub-section and does not invalidate this Contract nor terminate this Trust. This Contract, the Trust created by it, and all other provisions herein remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 10.2 This Trust is created by invoking the Constitutionally guaranteed rights as set forth in Article 1 Section 1 of this Contract to this Contract and the Trust it creates. It exists with its creation in the Constitutions, enumerated in Article 1, Section 1 of this Contract and in American Common Law. In the event any disagreement, dispute, or controversy ensues among the parties to this Contract or any challenge is made as to legality of this Contract. It must be substantively and procedurally adjudicated in a Court operating as an Article III Judicial Court (Federal) or Article V Judicial Court (State of Florida). No other jurisdiction shall be recognized by this Trust Contract or its Trustee(s) as to disputes between the parties hereto. The parties hereto preserve all their rights and privileges accruing hereunder including but not limited to all those rights and privileges guaranteed under the Constitutions for Florida and for the United States of America. Specifically their rights to seek remedies in any Court of competent jurisdiction and the right to a trial by jury pursuant to, and as defined, in the 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

DURATION AND RENEWAL OR TERMINATION

SECTION 11.1 This Trust shall expire at the end of twenty-five (25) years from the date of this Contract and Indenture unless it is terminated sooner in accordance with the provisions of this Contract and Indenture. It is recognized that the "rule against perpetuities" does not apply to this Trust; however, if this Trust is found to be within any jurisdiction and is reviewed by a court of competent jurisdiction and venue with respect to the issue of remoteness of vesting, undue duration, or a similar rule and the applicable law has shorter requirements than the rule against perpetuities, and is found deficient in any applicable law, the shorter requirement at law shall be applicable and that then shall be the intent of the Creator.

SECTION 11.2 This Contract and Indenture shall be renewable prior to the expiration date for any reasonable term, not to exceed the original term, so long as it is deemed by the Board of Trustees to be in the best interests of the certificate holders. If any certificate holder objects to renewal, the Board of Trustees may at its discretion distribute to the objecting party such portion of the assets as he would have been entitled to had the Trust terminated or expired and the Board of Trustees may continue the Trust with the remaining corpus and certificate holders. Upon decision to renew, a resolution of renewal shall be entered in the minutes of the Trust. Any vote concerning renewal shall take place not more than 120 (One Hundred Twenty) days, nor less than 30 (thirty) days from the date this Contract and Indenture is due to terminate.

ARTICLE TWELVE SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

SECTION 12.1 See Exhibit One, if any.

The Trustee(s) shall hold all assets of the trust in allodium or in fee simple or the highest form of absolute free title ownership then available and in joint tenancy with the trust. SECTION 13.4 No successor Trustee(s) shall be personally liable for any act of or the omission of any act required or necessary by him/her or his/her predecessor. With the approval of the successor Trustee(s), the successor Trustee(s) may accept the account rendered and the property received as a full and complete discharge to the predecessor Trustee(s) without incurring any liability for so doing.

SECTION 13.5 Upon the death, resignation, or removal of the Trustee(s), a successor Trustee(s) will be appointed or elected to the Board of Trustees. Should the entire Board of Trustees become vacant, the successor Trustee(s) shall be automatically appointed as Trustee(s) of this Trust.

SECTION 13.6 The Trustee(s) shall exercise exclusive management and control of the Trust's assets and shall have the power to appoint others as necessary to do same.

SECTION 13.9 A Trustee(s) may be removed from office by the unanimous action of the Board of Trustees for good cause to be determined by said Board of Trustees. The grounds for the removal may be kept confidential. In the case of the removal of an independent Trustee(s), the only other person who can be appointed in the stead thereof shall be another independent Trustee(s).

SECTION 13.10 If a Trustee(s) resigns or is removed from office, he or she will sign and submit a letter of resignation and it shall be made a part of the Trust records hereof. No Trustee(s) shall resign, if he or she is the last remaining Trustee(s), until a successor Trustee(s) is appointed. The letter of resignation shall be maintained by the Trustee(s) or the trust record keeper in the trust records. Any third party to whom the letter of resignation is shown may rely upon the validity of that letter as the true state of affairs with respect to the trust. Any Trustee may resign at any time by written notice to the Board of Trustees, or, if he/she be the last Trustee, to the Protector, if any, in writing except if the last Trustee, not until at least one successor Trustee has been appointed and accepted his/her appointment.
