SECTION 1.1 THE ABOVE named Creator of this Trust, effective September 16, 2010, does declare that he intended to and does create a Trust, and that the names of the initial Trustees are Dr. Alan W. Gruning, Janet Gruning, and Rev. Donald J. Brummett. The Trustees shall be ascertainable by written acceptance executed and filed in accordance with the requirements of this Trust. The Trustees shall hold all property of the Trust in trust for the benefit of Christian Health Ministries, or in furtherance of the purposes of this Trust, and they shall comprise the Board of Trustees for conducting the affairs of this Trust.

SECTION 1.2 THIS TRUST is declared to be irrevocable, complex, and cannot be changed in any manner by the Creator. The Creator has no possessory interest in this Trust, no reversionary interest, and no retained interest whatsoever, nor has the Creator engaged in any secret agreements or pre-arrangements, of any type, with the Trustees of this Trust that might obligate said Trustees to act in any manner on Creator's behalf, except as fair, unbiased, independent fiduciaries in the best interests of the Christian Health Ministries, and in strict conformity with the guidelines and requirements of this Trust.

SECTION 1.3 THIS TRUST is known as a Pure Trust, Common Law Trust Organization, Constitutional Common Law Contract in Trust Form, and Contract Trust. This Trust is created by the Creator under the Common Law, and is protected under the Constitution of the United States of America, Article I, Section 10, and the Constitution of the State of Florida, Article I, Section 10. This Trust is an irrevocable contract by and between the undersigned Trustees and the Creator. The Trustees shall administer this Trust.

ARTICLE TWO DOMICILE & NAME

The Trust name is CHRISTIAN HEALTH MINISTRIES. The construction of this Trust agreement shall be determined primarily in accordance with the express terms of this Trust and the Common Law. The domicile of this Trust shall be in Florida, but the Trustees shall have the power to remove the domicile to any other place which shall be deemed prudent, wise, necessary, appropriate or desirable by the Trustees. The Trustees shall have the power to change the name of this Trust when deemed prudent, wise, necessary, appropriate or desirable. The Trustees shall have the power to operate this Trust under one or more Fictitious Names, when deemed prudent, wise, necessary, appropriate or desirable.

ARTICLE THREE PURPOSE

SECTION 3.1 THE PURPOSE of this Trust is to serve God and our Lord, Jesus Christ, by supporting the provision of high quality, holistic, medical care at no charge to those without the ability to pay, with attention to the physical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of health and healing. This Trust is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes as defined under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("IRC"), as amended. This instrument shall serve as the sufficient guide, supplemented from time to time by resolutions of the Board of Trustees, covering contingencies as they arise and are recorded in the minutes of its meetings. Trust minutes are a portion of the rules and regulations of this Trust, the said minutes to be ratified always by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees of this Trust alone, as awarded herein, possesses such authority.

SECTION 3.1.1 THIS TRUST is further organized so that its Trustees can own and hold real and personal property to further this purpose, and, in holding and owning such property, they thereby acknowledge themselves as God's stewards of such property. In furtherance of said objective, the Trustees shall own and hold real and personal property for the common use of Christian Health Ministries.

SECTION 3.1.2 IN PURSUING such purpose, the Creator and Trustees covenant with God and with each other to be held accountable as full stewards of the Lord's work, first to the glory of God and His Son and His Holy Spirit, and, secondly, as stewards of Christian Health Ministries. In that regard, this Trust is created to provide control and management of the assets of this Trust, vested in the Board of Trustees, for the benefit of Christian Health Ministries.

SECTION 3.1.3 THE PROPERTY of the Trust is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes as defined under IRC § 501(c)(3), as amended, and no part of the assets or earnings of the Trust, on liquidation or otherwise, shall ever inure to the benefit of any Trustee, Officer or other individual, except as provided herein.

SECTION 3.1.5 NOTWITHSTANDING any other provision of this Trust, the Trust shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on (a) by an entity exempt from Federal Income Tax under IRC § 501(c)(3) (or a corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or (b) by an entity contributions to which are deductible under IRC § 170(c)(2) (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

SECTION 3.1.6 ON LIQUIDATION of the Trust, all assets and earnings of the Trust remaining after paying or providing for all proper debts and obligations shall be distributed and paid over to such funds, foundations, trusts or corporations then organized and operating for charitable purposes under the provisions of IRC § 501(c)(3), or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law, including any successor Trust to this Trust, as the Trustees shall determine.

SECTION 3.1.7 THE BYLAWS of Christian Health Ministries shall have the following purpose: "Christian Health Ministries, its administrators, and Trustees, are all encouraged to act as witness to Jesus Christ, the Son of God, both within the community and throughout the World. Christian Health Ministries shall acknowledge the Bible, in its original written manuscripts, as the inspired and inerrant word of God. In furtherance thereof, the purposes for Christian Health Ministries are:

1. To recognize the importance of faith in God, and the power of Jesus Christ, in the healing process.
2. To acknowledge that God has blessed us with an abundance of health and medical knowledge to utilize in ministering to the sick and injured.

4. To utilize volunteer licensed Christian health care professionals, as well as lay volunteers, to minister to people in non-traditional settings where they live. The goal is to be constantly mindful of God's leading, and to bring specialized medical care to all those areas He directs.
5. To partner with like-minded organizations to bring these services to the people that need them and qualify.
6. To refer those patients needing further Spiritual guidance to appropriate clergy.
7. To attempt to refer those patients needing more specialized care or hospital admission to high quality, Christian physicians, or if this is not possible, to local physicians who volunteer to provide free health care.
8. To commit to financial integrity and accept only those donations that are needed to provide these services.

SECTION 3.1.8 THE BOARD of Trustees shall manage the administration of Christian Health Ministries. The Board of Trustees shall be the ruling body of Christian Health Ministries and as such, shall govern the overall organization of the Ministries.
