6. POWER AND AUTHORITY: The powers and authority of the Trustee with respect to the trust property include, by way of illustration, the following:

A. To apply for and receive life insurance on the life of any person, and to accept the ownership and beneficial interest of life insurance, which may be transferred to the Trustee without responsibility as to the payment of premiums. The insuring companies have no responsibility as to the payment of premiums. The insuring companies have no responsibility other than to pay the proceeds of the policies to the named beneficiary and are not required to examine the Declaration of Trust at any time.

B. To sell, convey lease, exchange, abandon, pledge for security, and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have regarding any property, which in his discretion, the Trustee chooses to receive subject to this Declaration of Trust.

C. To open bank accounts, to borrow money with or without security, to receive all dividends, interest, and other income, and to compromise and settle claims. To purchase, sell or retain stocks, securities, mutual funds, mortgages and other investments. Any and all bank accounts, including checking and savings accounts, established in the name of the Trust by the Trustee, shall be subject to withdrawal, and all checks, drafts, and other obligations of the trust shall be honored by said depositories upon the signature of the Trustee. The banking institution that establishes accounts pursuant to this paragraph is advised that there is nothing in the trust instrument that requires the banking institution to exercise any discretion other than that required in normal banking procedures.

D. To exercise without notice, hearing, confirmation or approval of any Court, each and every power enumerated in the Uniform Trustee Powers Act in effect at the date of this agreement.

E. The Trustee has the specific power to buy, sell and trade in securities of any nature on margin, or otherwise, including options, commodities and short sales, and for such purpose may maintain and operate brokerage accounts with brokers.

7. The First Trustee is empowered to designate other Trustees and Successor Trustees, officers, agents, and/or bank agents as fiduciary agents of this Trust.

8. That enumeration of certain powers of the Trustee shall be interpreted neither in derogation of any right of the Trustee under the law, nor as restricting the discretion a prudent person would use in the management of property held for the benefit of others. Such enumeration shall not limit its general powers in dealing with third persons, the Trustee being vested with and having all rights, duties, powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have.
