ARTICLE XIII. FIDUCIARY APPOINTMENTS

I appoint Ronald W. Jones, ~~X~~^{et} and Susan M. Jones, to act as trustees of the trust set up herein. If any trustee, resigns, or otherwise ceases to act, the trustee may be substituted and changed by vote of electors as hereinafter provided. Each of the electors shall have one vote. No non-compos mentis shall be eligible to act as an elector or trustees.

From time to time one or more trustee may be relieved from duty and another or others elected as successor or successors, and in the same manner vacancies among the trustees, however created, may be filled.

Any mentally competent person who has arrived at the age of eighteen (18) years shall be eligible to become and be a trustee.

Senjo70 Irrevocable Family Trust

Electors: In the election of trustees, the electors shall be the following:

- A. Primary beneficiary;
- B. Secondary beneficiary;
- C. After death of A and B then each beneficiary shall be an elector for their respective trust.

Upon the election of any trustee or trustees, not less than a majority of the electors shall sign, and cause to be placed of record in the Deed Records of Clark County in Nevada, that is principal place of business of the Trust a resolution or declaration which shall state (1) the number of eligible electors; (2) the name or names of the retiring trustee or trustees; (3) the name or names of the newly elected trustee or trustees; and (4) the names of the trustees constituting the new Board of Trustees; and such resolution or declaration shall be conclusive as to the facts therein stated, and shall be binding and effective for all purposes until a subsequent resolution is filed for record.

13.03 No individual fiduciary trustee shall receive any compensation for serving under this trust and no bond shall be required of any trustee. However, if in the judgment of the electors, the circumstances should become such that the trustee, or any of them, should be compensated for their services, then and in that event, they may receive, out of the net revenues of the trust estates, reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the electors.

All corporate fiduciaries shall receive fair and reasonable compensation for services rendered in any amount not exceeding the customary and prevailing charges for services of a similar character at the time and at the place such services are performed, unless agreed in writing with Grantor to a different fee. All the fiduciaries shall be reimbursed for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with their fiduciary duties.

13.04 Unless another meaning is clearly indicated or required by context or circumstances, the term "trustee" shall mean and include any co-trustee or successor while serving hereunder.

13.05 Any trustee may resign as to any trust created by this trust by giving at least thirty (30) days' written notice (unless waived by the person receiving the notice) to the beneficiary of such trust: provided, however, that, if the person entitled to receive notice is a minor or an incompetent, such notice shall be delivered to such minor's parents or guardian or to such incompetent's guardian.

Senjo70 Irrevocable Family Trust

13.06 If, in the opinion of the trustees named herein above, it should ever become uneconomical for said trustees or said corporate fiduciary to act or to continue to act as trustees of any trust created herein because of the small size of such trust, such trustees may resign or refuse to serve as trustee and appoint an individual as alternate or successor trustee, if the trusteeship is vacant.

13.07 If any bank or trust company or other corporation ever succeeds to the trust business of any corporate fiduciary serving hereunder by means of merger, consolidation, change of name, or any other form of reorganization, or if such fiduciary ever transfers all of its existing business of serving as a fiduciary to any other bank or trust company or corporation shall thereupon without further action succeed such corporate fiduciary in each appointment hereunder as if originally named herein.

ARTICLE XIV. INVALID CLAUSE

14.01 If any part, clause, provision, or condition of this trust agreement is held to be illegal, void, invalid, or inoperative for any reason, such voidness, invalidity, or inoperativeness shall not affect any other clause, provision, or condition hereof; but the remainder of this trust agreement shall be effective as though such clause, provision, or condition had not been contained herein.

14.02 If any part of this trust shall be illegal, void, invalid or inoperative for any reason, the trustees may seek and obtain Court instructions for the purpose of carrying out as nearly as may be possible the intention of this trust agreement as shown by the terms hereof, including the terms held illegal, void, invalid or inoperative.

beneficiary; provided, however, that such reference shall include, with respect to any provisions of this trust, descendants who have been conceived at any specific point in time relevant to such provision and who thereafter survive birth.

15.03 References in this trust to "heirs at law" are to those persons who take upon intestacy under the statutes of descent and distribution of the State of Florida relating to separate personality.

15.04 Where context and circumstances require, the gender of all words used in this trust shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter, and the singular of all words shall include the plural and the plural the singular.

15.05 This trust agreement has been executed in the State of Florida, and all questions pertaining to its validity, construction and administration shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, and any legal action concerning this trust shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction, in the County of principal place of business of the Trust.

15.06 To the same extent as if it were the original, anyone may rely on a copy of this trust agreement certified by a notary public to be a true copy of this trust agreement. Anyone may rely on any statement of fact certified by anyone who appears from the original trust agreement or a certified copy thereof to be a trustee hereunder, subject to the provisions in 12.03 herein.

ARTICLE XVI. CRUMMEY RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL: RULES, LIMITATIONS AND PROCEDURES

16.01 Immediately following each contribution (as defined below) to the trust, each of the beneficiaries (unless excluded as provided below) may withdraw from the trust a portion of the value of each contribution, the amount of which, and the limitations, rules and procedures applicable to which shall be set forth herein.

16.02 With respect to property added to the trust by inter-vivos gift by any donor, each withdrawal beneficiary living at the time of the gift shall have the right at any time prior to the expiration of this withdrawal right as provided in this Article XV to withdraw from the trust by written demand delivered to the trustees cash or other property equal in value to the lesser of (i) a fraction of the value of the gift determined by dividing the number one by the number of withdrawal beneficiaries living on the date of the gift whose withdrawal rights have not been denied or restricted as provided by this Article XV, or (ii) the difference between the annual exclusion amount and the value of other property withdrawn or withdrawable by that beneficiary during the calendar year with respect to any other gift to the trust during the calendar year from the donor of the gift.

Senjo70 Irrevocable Family Trust

16.03 Withdrawal right shall expire, to the extent not previously exercised as follows:

The amount withdrawn by any withdrawal beneficiary shall be cumulative, and shall lapse on the last day of each calendar year or thirty days following the death of grantor in an amount equal to the greater of that sum referred to in Internal Revenue Code Sec. 2514(e)(1), as amended, (currently, five thousand ($5,000.00) or that percentage referred to in Code Sec. 2514(e)(2), as amended, (currently, five percent (5%) of the trust corpus out of which, or the proceeds of which, the exercise of this withdrawal right could be satisfied.

Rights of withdrawal that do not lapse at the end of a calendar year shall continue to be exercisable by the descendant subject to this same limited annual lapse.

Outstanding withdrawal rights with respect to multiple gifts (i) shall expire in the order granted and (ii) shall be cumulative until they are exercised or until they expire as provided above.

All outstanding withdrawal rights of a withdrawal beneficiary shall expire upon the withdrawal beneficiary's death.

16.04 The maximum amount that a descendant may withdraw with respect to all contributions made in any calendar year shall not, in any event, exceed the gift tax annual exclusion in effect at the time of each contribution, less the amount of prior gifts to the same withdrawal beneficiary either outright or in trust, by the same donor during the same calendar year, which gifts were eligible for the federal gift tax annual exclusion.

16.05 Absent an express direction to the contrary by a donor at or before the time of contribution, all gifts that enter into the computation under this Article shall be treated as having been made equally by the donor and the donor's spouse if the donor was married when the gift was made and the gift was eligible for gift-splitting under Code Sec. 2513(a). The limitation on the amount of a contribution that may be withdrawn under this Article, with respect to contributions made by a donor who was married when the gift was made and which gift was eligible for gift-splitting under Code Sec. 2513, shall be separately calculated and applied as to each spouse's deemed half of the gift.

16.06 The trustees shall promptly notify each competent adult who holds a withdrawal right under this Article of all contributions to which that person's withdrawal right relates. The trustees shall notify a person who is under a legal disability, including (but not limited to) minority, by notifying:

Senjo70 Irrevocable Family Trust

The legal guardian of the individual's property, who is hereby authorized to exercise the withdrawal rights;

Any living parent of the individual;

Any other person taking care of the individual or with whom the individual resides; or Any other appropriate adult individual selected by the trustees.

16.07 The trustees may by an instrument in writing amend this Article to the extent the trustees shall deem it appropriate to assure that contributions to this trust qualify for the gift tax annual exclusion for federal gift tax purposes. The trustees may not amend the trust in any manner that would cause any portion of the trust funds to be included in the Grantor's gross estate, or that of any of the Grantor's descendants. An amendment made in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons interested in the trust and the trustees shall not be liable for the consequences of any amendment. No amendment shall limit or alter the rights of a beneficiary in any trust funds by the trustees before the amendment.

16.08 No trustee may make any discretionary distributions of principal or income that would reduce the available trust principal below the total amount of the then-existing withdrawal rights without advance notice to each trust beneficiary who is entitled to make a withdrawal or who is, under this Article, entitled to act for a minor or disabled beneficiary.

16.09 Contribution under this Article means any cash or other assets transferred by the trustees to be held as part of the trust funds, in a manner that constitutes a gift for federal gift tax purposes. A contribution also includes any direct or indirect payment of the premiums on a policy of life insurance held by a trustee. In case any premium is paid directly to an insurance company, the date on which the premium is transmitted to the insurance company shall be deemed to be the date property is added to the trust by inter-vivos gift.

ARTICLE XVII. IRREVOCABILITY

17.00 The grantor hereby relinquishes all right to alter, amend, revoke or terminate this agreement. This indenture of Trust and the trust created hereunder are intended to be and shall be irrevocable, and neither the Grantor, nor anyone else, shall have the right or power to revoke, alter, amend, modify or change this indenture of Trust, or any provision hereof, except that the Grantor, or any other person, may add to the principal of the trust estates any property deemed acceptable by the Trustees.
