Smyrna, Georgia [30080]

2. DATE OF TRUST: night-of eifgth-October two-zero-one-five

3. NAME OF EXECUTOR: Robert L. Crowder, Jr.©

4. NAME OF TRUSTEES:

: Robert L. Crowder, Jr., FIRST TRUSTEE.

5. NAME OF PRESENT SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE (S)

:CONVERSE B. LONG,III.

6. POWER AND AUTHORITY. The powers and authority of the trustee(s) as well as Authorize Representative may sign with or without one or the other been present and with respect to the holding of trust property include, by way of illustration, the following:

A. To apply for and receive life insurance on the life of any person; to accept ownership and beneficial interest of life insurance, which may be transferred to the trustee(s) without responsibility as to the payment of premiums. The insuring companies have no responsibility other than to pay the proceeds of the policies to the named beneficiary and are not required to examine the Declaration of Trust at any time.

B. To sell, convey, lease, exchange, abandon, pledge, for security, and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have regarding any property, which in their discretion, the trustee(s) choose(s) to receive subject to this Declaration of Trust.

ARTICLE II
DURING MY LIFETIME

2.1 Income and Principal

I, ROBERT L. CROWDER, JR., shall be the First Trustee of THE ROBERT L. CROWDER, JR. LP DECLARATION OF IRREVOCABLE CORPORATE TRUST UNDER AGREEMENT DATED

OCTOBER 8, 2015. During my lifetime, the Trustee shall hold and distribute the income and principal of the trust property as follows:

(a) During my lifetime, the Trustee shall hold and distribute to me such portions of income and/or principal as I, in my sole discretion, deems appropriate and necessary. This discretionary distribution shall be made as I, from time to time direct as necessary. Any undistributed income shall be added to the trust principal. The Trustee shall make other payments as I deem appropriate and necessary, and is within my sole discretion.

(b) If the Beneficiary becomes disabled or incapacitated, the Trustee shall pay for such portions of income and principal as he deems necessary or advisable in the sole discretion of the Trustee for the benefit of the beneficiaries to this Trust.

2.2 Incapacity of Trustee

If a court or a competent medical professional declares any Trustee or Trustees to be incompetent, then the competent Trustee shall become the Successor Trustees in Paragraph 4.2 and shall direct the provisions of this Trust.

2.3 Right to Amend; No Right to Revoke

The Trustee reserves the right during his lifetime to amend or modify this Declaration of Trust Agreement in whole or in part, without the consent of any Beneficiary and without giving notice to any Beneficiary hereunder, by a writing or writings signed and acknowledged by the Trustee, to be effective upon delivery to the Trustee. The Trustee does not reserve the right during his lifetime to revoke this Declaration of Trust Agreement in whole or in part. Upon the death of the Trustee, this Declaration of Trust Agreement can only be modified by my appointed Successor Trustee.

ARTICLE III
UPON THE DEATH OF TRUSTEE

3.1 Death Taxes and Expenses

Upon the death of the first initial Trustee, the Successor Trustee shall take full force and effect of the management provisions of this Trust. The Successor Trustee shall pay to and upon the written direction of the Executor or Administrator of my estate such amounts of the trust principal as he or she deems necessary or advisable to pay any part or all of the debts, claims, costs, expenses, and cash bequests of my estate, and the death taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, if any payable by reason of my death as to all property in my taxable estate, probate and non-probate. The same Trustee shall administer under the succeeding paragraphs all the remaining trust property held at, or collected or received from any source by reason of my death.

3.2 Distribution of the Trust - Upon the Death of Initial Trustee

Upon the death of the initial Trustee, the Successor Trustee shall distribute the trust assets according to the following schedule:

- (a) The Successor Trustee shall pay all of the death expenses, including expenses of the last illness, funeral and burial expenses. In addition, the Trustees shall hold sufficient assets to pay an inheritance or estate taxes due upon the death of the Initial Trustee;

- (b) The Successor Trustee shall distribute a maximum amount of $1,000,000,000.00USD in cash, in equal shares, share and share alike in the following manner:

100 percent to

In the event that this Trust has less than $1,000,000,000.00 available in cash on hand at the time of the Initial Trustee's death, the aforementioned beneficiaries shall divided equally, share and share alike, whatever cash on hand is available in the percentages outlined above.

ARTICLE IV

APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES

4.1 Appointment of Trustees

For all trusts under this instrument, the Trustee and Successor Trustees shall be those persons as designated below. Each Successor Trustee shall serve in the order designated if the prior Trustee fails to qualify or ceases to act:

- (a) "Initial Trustee"- ROBERT L. CROWDER, JR.
- (b) "Successor Trustee"- CONVERSE B. LONG, III

4.2 Successor Trustees

Upon the death, resignation or incapacity of the Initial Trustee,

ROBERT L. CROWDER, JR., then CONVERSE B. LONG, III shall serve as Successor Trustee hereunder. The Successor Trustee(s) shall have all the powers given the originally named Trustee(s). The term "Trustee" shall also mean and include any co-trustees, alternate or successor trustees while servicing in such fiduciary capacity hereunder.

4.3 Appointment of Successor Trustee

Except as otherwise provided, appointment of an additional Trustee may be directed by the initial Trustee, if living and able to act, otherwise a majority of the income beneficiaries of the Trust may appoint a Successor Trustee. Unless otherwise provided, every Successor Trustee shall have all the powers given the originally named Trustee. The natural or legal guardian of a minor and the legal guardian of an incompetent adult may act on behalf of such minor or adult.

4.4 Resignation of Trustee

Any Initial Trustee may resign as Trustee by written notice. Any other Trustee may resign as to any trust at any time by written notice to the Initial Trustee or Successor Trustee.

4.5 No Bond Required

I direct that no bond or surety be required of any Trustee. No Trustee shall be obligated to account to any court for the administration of any trust created under this instrument.

4.6 Compensation

Every Trustee shall be entitled to fair and reasonable compensation for services rendered by the fiduciary. Every Trustee shall be reimbursed for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with such Trustee's duties.

4.7 Out-of-State Trust Property

The Trustee may from time to time designate, in writing, a person or qualified corporation to act as special trustee with respect to any property which the Trustee determines may require local management and/or control. Any person or corporation acting as special trustee may resign at any time by written notice to the Trustee. Each special trustee shall have the powers granted to the Trustee by this instrument, to be exercised only with the approval of the Trustee, to whom the net income and the proceeds from sale of any part or all of the property shall be remitted to be administered under this instrument.

4.8 Incapacity

Except as otherwise provided in Section 2.2, any person acting or named to act in a fiduciary capacity hereunder, or required to be legally competent in order to act hereunder, shall be considered to have ceased or failed to act, or to be legally incompetent to act, when a physician whom such person has consulted within the prior three years has certified as to such consultation and also as to the lack of the physical or mental capacity of such person to manage his or her financial affairs.

4.9 Investment Advisor

At any time when an individual is serving as a sole Trustee hereunder, such individual Trustee may engage the services of a corporate fiduciary to act as agent or custodian and/or employ a professional investment advisor, and we specifically authorize the use of funds from our estate or from any trust created under this instrument to pay for such services.

ARTICLE V

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

5.1 Tax Elections

The Trustee shall make such elections under the tax laws as the Trustee deems advisable, without regard to the relative interests of the Beneficiaries, including but not limited to the power, exercisable without court approval, to allocate our Federal exemption from the generation-skipping tax to any property with respect to which we are the transferors for purposes of the said tax (whether or not such property is included in our probate estate) and to exclude any such property from such allocation. No adjustment shall be made between principal and income or in the relative interests of the Beneficiaries to compensate for the effect of elections under the tax laws made by the Trustee.

5.2 Liability of Trustees

I hereby exonerate Trustees from any liability arising from any exercise or failure to exercise these powers, provided the actions (or inactions) of our Trustees are taken in good faith.

5.3 Consolidation of Trusts

The Trustee may consolidate and merge for all purposes of a trust created hereunder with any other trust created by us or any other person at any time, if the Trustee determines such other trust contains substantially the same terms as this Trust for the same Beneficiary or Beneficiaries, and thereafter may administer such consolidated and merged trusts as one; but if such consolidation and merger does not appear desirable or feasible, the Trustee may consolidate the assets of such trusts for purposes of investment and administration while retaining separate records and accounts for the separate trusts.

5.4 Funding of Trusts

For purposes of funding any pecuniary gift under this instrument, the Trustee shall use the date of distribution value for any property so distributed.

5.5 Accrued Income

Except as otherwise provided, income received after the last income payment date and undistributed at the termination of any estate or interest shall, together with any accrued income, be paid by the Trustee as income to the persons entitled to the next successive interest in the proportions in which they take that interest, subject, however, to any power of appointment.

5.6 Trust Termination

It is the true intention of the Grantor that this Trust shall survive in perpetuity and shall terminate only when both conditions: (a) All Successor Beneficiaries of the KAHN Family Trust, as outlined herein are all deceased with no remaining heirs and (b) All Trust funds and assets have been expended; have been satisfied.

ARTICLE VI
PROVISIONS RELATING TO POWERS
OF TRUSTEES AND SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

6.1 Powers of Trustees

Any Trustee serving hereunder shall have all of the powers from time to time conferred upon Trustees by law, except to the extent a power would conflict with this instrument, in which case the provisions of this instrument shall control. In addition to such powers, any Trustee observing hereunder is specifically authorized:

(a) To retain any property (including stock of any corporate Trustee hereunder or a parent or affiliate company) originally constituting the Trust or subsequently added thereto, although not of a type, quality or diversification considered improper for trust investments;

(b) To invest and reinvest the trust property (including that of any corporate fiduciary hereunder of a parent or affiliate company) in bonds, stocks, mortgages, bank deposits, options, future contracts, limited partnership interests, notes or other property of any kind, real or personal, domestic or foreign, suitable for the investment of trust funds, including any participation in any common trust fund; to deposit or arrange for the deposit of securities in a central depository;

(c) To cause any property, real or personal, belonging to the Trust to be held or registered in the Trustee's name or in the name of a nominee or in such other form as the Trustee deems best without disclosing the relationship;

(d) To vote in person or by general or limited proxy, or refrain from voting, any corporate securities for any purpose, except that any security as to which the possession of the Trustee of voting discretion would subject the issuing company or the Trustee to any law, rule or regulation adversely affecting either the company or the ability of the Trustee to retain or vote company securities, shall be voted as directed by the Beneficiaries then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income from the Trust; to exercise or sell any subscription or conversion rights; to consent to and join in or oppose any voting trusts, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers, foreclosures and liquidations and in connection therewith to deposit securities and accept and hold other property received therefor;

(e) To lease trust property for any period of time even though commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the Trust;

(f) To borrow money from any lender, extend or renew any existing indebtedness and mortgage or pledge any property in the Trust;

(g) To sell, without the necessity of authorization by any court, at public or private sale, contract to sell, convey, exchange, transfer and otherwise deal with the trust property, real or personal, and any reinvestment thereof, and to sell put and covered call options, from time to time for such price and upon such terms as the Trustee sees fit;

(h) To employ agents, attorneys and proxies and to delegate to them such powers as the Trustee considers desirable;

(i) To compromise, contest, prosecute or abandon claims in favor of or against a trust created hereunder;

(j) To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests or different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment need be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for Federal income tax purposes; to value the trust property and to sell any part or all thereof in order to make allocation or distribution; no action taken by the Trustee pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to question by any Beneficiary; provided, however, in exercising the foregoing judgment, the Trustee shall act in fair and impartial manner with respect to all Beneficiaries such that the exercise of the judgment of the Trustee in the selection and valuation of assets to be divided, distributed or allocated shall not jeopardize the intended estate and transfer tax results of such gifts, including any otherwise available marital or charitable deduction;

(k) To deal with, purchase assets from, or make loans to, the fiduciary of any trust made by us or any member of our family or a trust or estate in which any Beneficiary under this instrument has an interest, though a Trustee hereunder is the fiduciary or a Beneficiary; to deal with a corporate Trustee hereunder individually or a parent or affiliate company;

(l) To establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for depletion, but reserves for depreciation shall not be established except to the extent that the Trustee determines that readily marketable assets in the principal of the estate or Trust will be insufficient for any renovation, major repair, improvement or replacement of such property which the Trustee deems advisable;

(m) To elect, pursuant to the terms of any employee benefit plan, individual retirement plan or insurance contract, the mode of distribution of the proceeds thereof, and no adjustment shall be made in the interests of the Beneficiaries to compensate for the effect of the election;

(n) To transfer the situs of any trust property to any other jurisdiction as often as the Trustee deems it advantageous to the Trust;

(o) To take such action in collecting the proceeds of any life insurance payable to the Trustee (after deducting all charges by way of advances, loans or otherwise) as the Trustee deems best, paying the expense thereof from the trust property, but the Trustee need not enter into litigation to enforce payment on a policy until indemnified to its satisfaction against all expenses and liabilities which might result therefrom; the insurance company shall not take notice of the provisions of this Trust or see to the application of the proceeds, and the Trustee's receipt to the insurance company shall be a complete release for any payment made;

(p) To buy, sell and trade in securities of any nature, including short sale on margin, and may pledge any securities held or purchased by them with such brokers as security for loans and advances made to the Trustee; and

(q) To perform other acts necessary or appropriate for the proper administration of a trust created hereunder; including executing and delivering necessary instruments and giving full receipt and discharges.

(r) The corporate Trustee, if any, shall receive reasonable compensation in accordance with its regular schedule of compensation for inter vivos trusts of a similar size in effect when the services are performed. The individual Trustee, if any, shall receive reasonable compensation. The Trustee shall charge any annual compensation to income, or, if insufficient to principal. For any extraordinary services requested or required of it, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive reasonable additional compensation.

(s) To take whatever action the Trustee in its discretion shall consider best serves the interests of the Trust and its Beneficiaries in order to preserve the effectiveness of an existing S corporation election with respect to any stock held by it or to enable a new S corporation election to be made, including, but not limited to, the outright distribution of such stock to one or more of the Beneficiaries notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Trust instrument, or the creation of one or more separate trusts for the benefit of a trust beneficiary that will qualify as a qualified Subchapter S Trust under I.R.C. Section 1361(d) on terms similar to those contained in this instrument and the allocation of such stock to such trust or trusts.

(t) In allocating receipts and disbursements between income and principal, the Trustee shall follow the provisions of Florida Statutory Code; the Trustee shall have full authority, nonetheless, to make allocations contrary to those required by the Act whenever it, in its sole discretion, shall determine that a different allocation will better effectuate the purposes of the Trust, or any separate trust created hereunder, and no claim may be made or recovery had against the Trustee on the basis of any allocation decision made by it. By way of illustration (and not of limitation), the Trustee may reasonably conclude that the establishment of a depreciation reserve for one or more parcels of real property is not advisable, that it is appropriate to vary from the requirements of the Act with respect to allocating receipts from depletable resources between income and principal, or that provisions requiring payment to the income beneficiary of the increment, as accrued, in value of a bond or other obligation issued at a discount (e.g. a zero coupon or deep discount bond) are not to apply.

(u) Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of Florida Trusts and Estates Code, the following receipts shall be allocated entirely to principal:

- (i) Stock dividends;
- (ii) Capital gain distributions from regulated investment companies;
- (iii) Capital gains from the sale or exchange of assets comprising the principal of the trust estate;
- (iv) Extraordinary dividends or deferred compensation payments under employment agreements;
- (v) Payments from retirement plans.

6.2 Accounting

The Trustees (if other than I) shall render an account of trust receipts and disbursements and a statement of assets, at least annually, to each adult Beneficiary then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income from the Trust. Any person entitled to receive an accounting, or a person legally entitled to act for such person, shall state in writing any objections to an accounting and deliver the objections to the Trustee within six months after receipt of a copy of the accounting. Failure to object in this manner shall constitute a waiver of objections. The waiver shall be binding as to all matters stated in the accounting, or as shown by it, upon all persons claiming under the waiving Beneficiary, whether or not in being, who are then or thereafter may become, eligible to share in either the principal or the income of the Trust for which the accounting is made.

6.3 No Duty to Examine Prior Acts

No Successor Trustee shall be personally liable for any act or omission of any predecessor. With the approval of the Beneficiary or a majority in interest of the Beneficiaries then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income from the Trust, a Successor Trustee may accept the account rendered and the property received as a full and complete discharge to the predecessor Trustee without incurring any liability for so doing.

6.4 Reliance on Opinions

Any Trustee may rely in good faith upon the written opinion of an attorney, any facts stated in any instrument in writing and believed true or any other evidence deemed sufficient. Any individual Trustee shall be saved harmless from any liability for any action such Trustee may take, or for the failure of such Trustee to take any action, if done in good faith and without gross negligence.

6.5 Donee's Will

In disposing of any trust property subject to a power of appointment by Will, the Successor Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the will of the donee or may assume that such donee died intestate if the Trustee has no notice of a Will within three months after the Donee's death.

6.6 Common Fund

For convenience of administration or investment, the Trustee may hold the several trusts (if more than one created hereunder) as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, assign undivided interests to the several trusts, and make joint investments of the funds belonging to them.

6.7 Trustee's Certificate

A certificate signed by any Trustee under this instrument and acknowledged by such Trustee before a notary public shall be conclusive evidence upon all persons and for all purposes of the facts stated in the certificate respecting the terms of this instrument and the identity of the Trustee who, from time to time, is serving under it.

6.8 Reduction or Release of Powers

Any Trustee shall have the power to release or renounce any power, privilege or right (including this power), or the power to reduce the scope and extent of any power, privilege or right (including this power). If there is more than one Trustee of this Trust, this power may be exercised by any one Trustee, individually, or by all Trustees, collectively.

ARTICLE VII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Spendthrift

No right or interest of any Beneficiary under this Trust shall be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge or encumbrances or be subject to attachment or claims of creditors, including a spouse or divorced spouse; and regardless of the existence of any other basis thereof, any such Beneficiary hereunder shall be automatically deemed by the Trustee to become unable to manage personal financial affairs and to remain so until the Trustee, in its absolute discretion, determines otherwise, if, prior to the actual payment or distribution and without the consent or authorized act of the Trustee, (a) such beneficiary attempts to assign, alienate, pledge or encumber, or (b) any other person or entity would, but for this provision, acquire any interest in or lien upon any such income or principal otherwise payable or distributable to such Beneficiary. If this paragraph is in effect for a Beneficiary upon his or her death, any trust property remaining in such Beneficiary's trust upon his or her death shall be distributed and/or administered in accordance with the terms of such Beneficiary's trust as if this paragraph was not in effect for such deceased Beneficiary.

7.2 Additional Contributions

Any person shall have the right, from time to time, to grant transfer or convey, either by inter-vivos transfer or by Will, to the Trustee such additional property as such person shall desire to become a part of the trusts hereby created and, subject to acceptance by the Trustee, such additional property shall be allocated to the trusts on the basis specified in the instrument by which such property is transferred, and shall thereafter be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of this instrument. If the addition of property is made by Will, the Trustee shall accept the statement of the personal representative that the assets delivered to the Trustee constitute all of the property to which the Trustee is entitled, without inquiring into the personal representative's administration or accounting.

7.3 Disclaimers

Any Beneficiary of any trust hereunder shall have the right to disclaim any part or all of such Beneficiary's interest in said trust. Said disclaimer may be affected through compliance with the requirements of the laws of any jurisdiction in which said trust may be administered. Alternatively, the Trustee may act upon any written disclaimer of any interest, in whole or in part, in any Grantor's estate or any trust arising under this instrument, provided any such written disclaimer is in compliance with Sections 2046 or 2518 of the Internal Revenue Code (whichever applies) and the valid regulations thereunder (each as may be amended). In the event any Beneficiary is legally incapacitated or otherwise unable to act in his or her own behalf, the Trustee may accept the disclaimer of the legal or natural guardian (or other authorized representative) of said Beneficiary without the necessity of court approval.

7.4 Definitions

References in this instrument to "descendant" or "descendants" mean lawful lineal blood descendants of the first, second or any other degree of the ancestor designated; provided, however, that such references shall include, with respect to any provision of this instrument, descendants who have been conceived at any specific point in time relevant to such provision and who thereafter survive birth; and provided further that such references shall also include a child adopted while a minor (but not an adopted adult child) and such adopted minor child's lawful lineal descendants by blood or adoption. References in this instrument to the "generation-skipping tax" or to "generation-skipping taxes" are to the tax imposed by Chapter 13 of Subtitle B of the I.R.C. References in this instrument to various provisions of the I.R.C. are to such designated provisions of the I.R.C. of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding statute hereafter in effect.

7.5 Construction

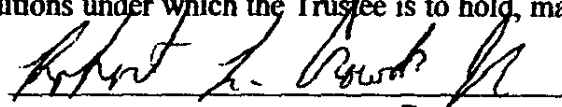

The section headings used are for convenience only and shall not be resorted to for interpretation of this instrument. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine, feminine or neuter gender shall include the other two genders, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular. No discretionary power to make principal distributions which is given a Trustee shall be construed by the Trustee or others as a power exercisable by such Trustee in other than a fiduciary capacity.

7.6 Governing Law

The law of the state of Florida shall govern the validity and interpretation of the provisions of this instrument. Further, said Trust shall be governed under Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution of the united states of America and shall survive with regards to laws impairing the obligation of contracts.
