This Trust Agreement revokes and terminates all previous Trust Agreement made by the Settlors in Florida and/or other States.

The Trustees agree to hold any and all properties transferred to this Trust, from whatever source, in trust under the following terms:

ARTICLE I

IDENTIFICATION OF TRUST

The living trust created by this Agreement shall be known as the "THE LINDOR FAMILY TRUST," hereinafter referred to as the "Trust," and is not an amendment to a prior Living Trust.

FILED

2020 JUN 20 PM 2:10

ARTICLE II

GOVERNING LAW

The validity of this Agreement shall be determined under the laws of the State of Florida. Questions of construction and administration of this Agreement shall be determined under the Florida Trust Code.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSE OF TRUST

The purposes of this Trust, among others, is to provide for the management of Settlors' assets, both presently and during any future period of disability, as a preferred alternative to guardianship proceedings, and a simplified means of accomplishing both lifetime and death transfers of those assets.

ARTICLE IV

CHILDREN

For the purposes of the Trust the children of the Grantor are as follows:

Name	Date of Birth
JEAN LUC LINDOR	10/12/1994
REVENA JEAN BAPTISTE	10/07/1996
CHRISNA LINDOR	06/27/1998
JUDENATAN LINDOR	10/13/2000
MARDOCHEE LINDOR	12/16/2001

CHRISLENE LINDOR	10/08/2009
RICHARDSON W LINDOR	09/20/2011
ROSEBERLINE LINDOR	07/19/2013

ARTICLE V

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY

Section 1.- On the date set forth above, the Grantors transferred to the Trust Estate and assets described in Attachment A which is attached and incorporated into the Trust. The Grantors or someone acting on the Grantors' behalf may transfer property, during the life of the Grantors or by the Grantors' Will, to the Trust and list such property on Attachment A.

Section 2.- The Grantors, along with any other individual, may transfer property to the ownership of the Trust. Property may be added to the Trust by writing in Attachment A, by attached receipt, or by placing the property under the ownership of the Trust.

Section 3.- Attachment A is for reference only, and any property transferred to the Trust formally or informally, but not listed on Attachment A, is also part of the Trust. All property transferred to the Trust formally or informally, together with the investments and reinvestments, as well as any income earned is sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Trust Estate". All property transferred to or deposited with the Trustees shall be held by it in trust for the uses and purposes stated herein.

ARTICLE VI

INCAPACITY

Section 1.- If both Grantors become incapacitated, the Trustees shall distribute such amounts of the income and principal of the Trust for the comfort, health, support, maintenance, and any additional care needed. Trustees have discretion to determine what amount is appropriate and necessary to maintain the Grantors' accustomed standard of living. Incapacity shall be defined as a lack of ability to manage his or her own personal and financial affairs, which may be due either to a mental or physical condition. The determination of incapacity shall be made by either a court of competent jurisdiction or two physicians licensed to practice medicine in the state where the Grantor is domiciled at the time of the certification. One of the two physicians shall be board certified in the specialty most closely associated with the cause of the Grantor's incapacity.

Section 2.- The Grantors shall be deemed to have regained capacity if there is a finding to that effect by a court of competent jurisdiction or two licensed physicians that the Grantor is capable of managing his or her personal and financial affairs.

Section 3.- Primary consideration should be given to the needs of the settlors and thereafter, to the needs of Settlors' immediate family. Any such distributions may be made to one or more of such beneficiaries to the complete exclusion of the others, in equal or unequal shares, as their respective needs require. The Trustees shall consider other income and resources of such beneficiaries known to the Trustees, to the extent the Trustees deem advisable. Any net income not so distributed to Settlors, or those persons dependent on Settlors, shall be accumulated and added to the principal. Any distribution authorized by this Article and made during Settlors' lifetime to a person other than Settlors shall be charged against the ultimate share of such person distributable under any other provision of this Trust.

ARTICLE VII
INSURANCE AND OTHER DEATH BENEFITS

Section 1.- During Settlors' life, Settlors reserve and may receive exercise without the consent or approval of the Trustees or any beneficiaries all the rights, powers, options and privileges which could be exercised by an absolute owner under the terms of any instrument governing the payment of benefits directly to the Trustees. The Trustees shall deliver any or all life insurance policies, or other instruments evidencing the Trustees' right to receive benefits, which are deposited with it under this Agreement on Settlor's written request. The Trustees shall have no duty to see that a withdrawn instrument is returned to its custody.

Section 2.- The Trustees shall be under no obligation to see that premiums, assessments or other sums due under such instruments are paid, or to pay the same, and shall be under no obligation in respect to the instruments deposited with the Trustees other than for their safekeeping, except to the extent expressly provided in this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to impose any or all of such instruments in force.

Section 3.- On the death of both Settlors, the Trustees shall make a reasonable effort to collect all sums payable directly to the Trustees, and, in their sole discretion, may exercise any of the options of settlement that may at that time be available to the Trustees under the terms of any instrument governing the payment of such sums.

Section 4.- The Trustees may institute proceedings in order to enforce payment in such sums. However, the Trustees need not, except at its option, enter into or maintain any litigation to enforce payment until it has been indemnified to its satisfaction against all expenses and liabilities to which, in its sole judgement, it may be subjected by any such action on its part.

Section 5.- The Trustees is authorized to compromise and adjust claims arising out of any instrument governing the payment of such sums upon such terms and conditions as it may deem prudent. The decisions of the Trustees shall be binding and conclusive on all interested parties.

Section 6.- No person or entity making payment to the Trustees shall be required to inquire into or take notice of any of the provisions of this Agreement or to see to the application or disposition of any such payment. The receipt of the Trustees to any payor shall release and discharge the payor for any payment made and shall be binding on every beneficiary of the Trusts created under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII
ESTATE ADMINISTRATION

Section 1.- On the death of both Settlors, the Trustees are authorized to purchase, and retain in form which received, as an investment for the Trust Estate, any property forming a part of the probate estate of Settlors. The Trustees may make loans, with or without security, to the personal representative of Settlors' probate estate. The Trustees shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Trust estate as a result of the exercise of the powers granted in this section.

Section 2.- The Trustees are authorized, but not directed, to pay Settlors' funeral and burial expenses, legally enforceable claims against Settlors and Settlors' estate, expenses of administration of Settlors' estate, any allowances by court order for those dependent on Settlors, and all inheritance, estate and succession taxes payable by reason of Settlors' death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from any person. The payments authorized under this Section are discretionary, and no claims or right to payment by third parties may be enforced against the Trust by virtue of such discretionary authority.

- No such payments shall be made from assets which are not included in Settlors' estate for federal estate tax purposes.
- The Trustees may make these payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the personal representative of Settlors' probate estate. The Trustees may rely upon the written statements of Settlors' personal representative as to all material facts relating to these payments and shall be under no duty to see to their application.
- Any asset upon which Death Taxes are imposed that would be entitled to any deduction in computing any Death Taxes shall have the full benefit of that deduction, in determining its proper share of Death Taxes. The executor shall determine the amount of the Death Taxes on Settlors' estate by applying any provisions of Settlors' Trust regarding the apportionment of those Death Taxes, even with respect to assets not otherwise held by or passing under Settlors' Trust.

Section 3.- The Trustees are authorized to accept any distributions received from the personal representative of the Settlors' probate estate without audit and shall be under no obligation to examine the accounts of Settlors' personal representative.

Section 4.- If the Trust holds United States treasury bonds which are eligible for redemption at par in payment of the federal estate tax, the Trustees shall redeem such bonds to the extent necessary to pay federal estate tax as a result of the Settlors' death.

Section 5.- Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, no death taxes resulting from the Settlors' death shall be allocated to or paid from any assets passing to a charitable organization as defined in Sections 170(c) and 2055(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and qualifying for the federal estate tax charitable deduction.

ARTICLE IX

TRUSTEESS' POWERS

As an extension and not a limitation of all common law and statutory authority, and except where in conflict with any other provision in the Trust, the Trustees shall have the following powers and authority:

A. To accept and receive property, real or personal, from the Grantor, from the Grantor's estate or from any other estate, trust or person, and to hold the same as a part of the Trust.

B. To collect income, interest, dividends, rents and profits.

C. To retain any part or all of the property, real or personal, received to be held in trust hereunder in the form of investments, and to invest and reinvest the property of the Trust in any investments as the Trustees may deem proper without regard for the principles of diversification or whether any form of investment would ordinarily be considered as suitable for a trustees to make or hold; and to retain any real estate or tangible personal property received to be held in trust hereunder and/or to acquire any real property and/or tangible personal property, permitting the Beneficiaries to make such use thereof as is advisable and commensurate with their beneficial interests, and to make repairs and improvements and pay taxes, insurance premiums and other charges with respect thereto as the Trustees may deem advisable.

D. To sell any real or personal property of the Trust at public or private sale for cash or on credit or to exchange the same on terms as the Trustees may deem advisable; to lease any real or personal property of the Trust at times and on terms as the Trustees may deem advisable, whether or not the lease may extend beyond the term of any trust.

E. To borrow for the purposes of the Trust and to mortgage or pledge any real estate or personal property as security for any such loans.

F. To foreclose by entry or otherwise, extend, assign or give partial releases of any mortgages, to discharge mortgages or liens on real or personal property.

G. To sign, seal, execute and deliver all proper and necessary conveyances and instruments for the purposes of the Trust.

H. To grant options for the sale or exchange of any property.

I. To vote in person or by proxy upon all stocks or other securities held and to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights of whatever nature pertaining to the property of the Trust and to pay any sums as may be deemed advisable in connection therewith, and to exercise stock options.

J. To participate in any plan of reorganization, consolidation or merger, to deposit any property of the Trust under any such plan or with any protective or reorganization committee, to delegate to such committee discretionary power with respect thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of the committee and any assessments levied under any plan and to accept and retain new securities received in pursuance of any plan.

K. To hold securities or any real or other personal property in the name of a nominee or nominees, or in any other form.

L. To employ legal counsel, investment counsel and agents, to decide whether or not to act upon their recommendations and to pay to them reasonable compensation from the Trust Estate.

M. To take any proceedings at law or in equity with reference to or in any matter concerning the Trust and to represent the interests of the Trust in any proceedings, with power to compromise or refer to arbitration any dispute in any way affecting the same.

N. To take steps and to do any acts which may be deemed necessary or proper for the due care and management of the Trust.

O. To value all property to be divided or distributed at then current fair market values, and, in the Trustees' discretion, to convert all or any part of such property into money and to make division or distribution thereof in kind or in money

P. To refuse to accept property as a trust asset if such property could result in liability to the Trust or otherwise impair the value of any Trust Estate.

Q. To place any portion or all of the trust funds in any custodial or agency account or other similar account administered by a banking institution or trust company and to rely upon their investment decisions, such not constituting an unauthorized delegation of the Trustees' duties; provided that this paragraph shall not be applicable if the Trustees is a corporate Trustees.

R. To have dealings between or among separate trusts or trust shares hereunder, including the purchase, sale or exchange of assets, or the borrowing or lending of money, on such reasonable terms as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

S. To open and maintain checking or savings accounts in any bank or banks and to designate any one or more persons to execute checks or make withdrawals therefrom.

T. To make loans to any person or persons upon such reasonable terms as the Trustees may determine, provided that no loan shall be made to any person who is also serving as a Trustees hereunder.

U. The Trustees may do all things necessary to maintain in full force and effect any oil, gas and other mineral interests; may purchase additional oil, gas and other mineral interests when necessary or desirable to effect a reasonable plan of operation or development; may buy or sell undivided interests in oil, gas and other mineral interests of any type, and may exchange any such interests for interests in other properties or for service; may execute oil, gas and other mineral leases on such terms as the Trustees may deem proper, and may enter into pooling, unitization, re-pressurization and any other type of Agreement relating to the development, operation and conservation of mineral properties, and any such lease or Agreement may have such duration as the Trustees may deem reasonable, even though extending beyond the duration of the Trust; may execute division orders, transfer orders, releases, assignments, farmouts and any other instruments which the Trustees deems proper; may drill, test, explore, mine, develop, and otherwise exploit any and all such oil, gas and other mineral interests; may select, employ, utilize or participate in any business form, including partnerships, joint ventures, co-owners' groups, syndicates and

ARTICLE X
SPECIFIC DISTRIBUTIONS AND DISTRIBUTION OF TANGIBLE PROPERTY

Section 1.- After paying the necessary expenses of the management and preservation of the Trust estate, the Trustees shall pay the entire net income of the Trust, at least quarterly, to or for the benefit of Settlor during Settlor's lifetime, together with such amounts of the Trust principal as Settlor may from time-to-time request in writing.

Section 2.- On both Settlors' death the Trustees shall distribute the nonbusiness tangible personal property belonging to the Trust as follow:

- The Trustees shall distribute the jewelry, household furniture, clothing, chinaware, silver, photographs, works of art, books, boats, automobiles, sporting goods, and all other tangible articles of household or personal use in accordance with any written signed and dated memorandum left by the deceased Settlor directing the distribution of such property and making general reference to this Trust. Any memorandum written, dated, and signed by the deceased Settlor disposing of nonbusiness tangible personal property shall be incorporated by reference into this Agreement as an amendment not required to be notarized. Should the deceased Settlor leave multiple written memoranda which conflict as to the disposition of any item of nonbusiness tangible personal property that memorandum which is last dated shall control as those items which are in conflict.
- If state law does not allow the use of a memorandum to distribute nonbusiness tangible personal property or to the extent that a Settlor's nonbusiness tangible personal property which is or becomes Trust property is not disposed of by memorandum for any reason, then that nonbusiness tangible personal property shall be distributed equally among Settlor's children, or the Trustees may sell the property and treat the proceeds as nontangible personal property to be distributed under the terms of this Trust Agreement. Any decision made by the Trustees with respect to either the selection or sale of nonbusiness tangible personal property shall be final and shall be binding on all beneficiaries.

Section 3.- The disposition of the tangible property under this Article shall not include tangible personal property which the Trustees, in its sole discretion, determines to be part of or used exclusively in any business, investment or rental activity, or profession in which the Settlor had an interest at the time of death.

ARTICLE XI

DISPOSITION OF TRUST ESTATE AT DEATH OF SETTLORS

Section 1.- Upon the Settlors' death, the remaining Trust estate (which, for the purposes of this Article, includes all forms of death benefits payable to the Trustees and property added to the Trust by Will, but after making or providing for the payments and distributions under preceding Articles) shall be distributed as follows:

- The HOUSE located at 2406 E Ida St, Tampa FL 33610, is to be sold and the proceeds divided as follows: 40% for Abigaele Ruth Lindor, 12% for Jean Luc Lindor, 12% for Revena JeanBaptiste. 12% for Chrisna Lindor, 12% for Mardochee Lindor, and 12% for JudeNatan Lindor.
- The HOUSE Located at 2408 E Ida St, Tampa FL 33610, is to be sold and the proceeds divided as follows: 50% for Chrislene Lindor, 25% for Richardson W. Lindor. and 25% for Roseberline Lindor.
- The HOUSE located at 3415 E Hanna Ave, Tampa FL 33610, is to be sold and the proceeds divided as follows: 10% for Abigaele Lindor. 10% for Jean Luc Lindor, 10% for Revena Lindor JeanBaptiste, 10% for Christna Lindor, 10% for Mardochee Lindor, 10% for JudeNathan Lindor, 20% Richardson W Lindor, and 20% for Roseberline Lindor.

Section 2.- If one of the Settlors' children predeceased the Settlors, all the assets conveyed to him or her by this Trust will be divided equally among his or her children (Settlor's grandchildren).

Section 3.- If at the time provided for the distribution of the principal of any Trust administered hereunder there shall be no beneficiary designated then living, such principal and all accrued and undistributed to those persons who would have been Settlors' heirs at law had both Settlor died immediately after the time provided for distribution, as determined under the laws of the State of Florida then in effect relating to the intestate distribution of personal property.

Section 4.- The Trustees shall have no duty to review the administration of the Grantors' estate by such legal representative unless the Trustees have actual affirmative knowledge of any impropriety in such administration.

Section 5.- At any time during or after the Trust's existence a Beneficiary may request an accounting of the property in the Trust which may or may not include income, liabilities, and a list of assets known to be in the Trust's possession. Requests may not be made more than once per Year.

ARTICLE XII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1.- Dealings With Third Parties: Any person, firm, corporation or entity dealing with the Trustees may always, rely upon the Trustees, as being duly authorized hereunder in all particulars; and no such person, firm, corporation or entity shall in any way be responsible for the proper use or application of any property delivered, or any funds paid over or advanced, by any of them to the Trustees; and the receipt of the Trustees for any payment or advancement made to the Trustees, or for any property delivered to the Trustees, shall be a complete discharge and acquaintance to the extent specified in such receipt. Persons dealing with the Trustees shall look only to the property administered by the Trustees for payment of claims and not to the Trustees' personal property.

Section 2.- Severability: If any wording, sentence, or article of the Trust is determined to be invalid, unenforceable, or irrelevant for any reason whatsoever the remaining portions of the Trust remain legally valid and enforceable. If a court determines that limiting any such wording in the Trust would enable to become valid and enforceable then such wording shall be deemed written, construed, and enforced as so limited.

Section 3.- The interests of the beneficiaries shall not be subject to assignment pledge, attachment or the claims of their creditors. This provision shall not prevent the exercise of, or transfer pursuant to the exercise of, any right of disclaimer or power of appointment granted in this Agreement or under any rule of law.

Section 4.- The Trustees shall report at least annually to the beneficiaries eligible to receive the current income, all the receipts, disbursements and distributions during the reporting period, and assets then held as the principal of the Trust. The records of the Trust shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the beneficiaries of the Trust and their appointed representatives.

Section 5.- If any beneficiary under the Trust, other than a Settlor with respect to that Settlor's property, shall, singly or in conjunction with any other person, in a manner, directly or indirectly, attempt to contest or oppose the validity of this Agreement, including any amendments thereto, or the validity of a deceased Settlor's Will which leaves property to this Trust, or commences or prosecutes any legal proceedings to set aside this Agreement or any part thereof, or any such Will, or asserts any claim (except a legally enforceable debt), statutory election, or other right against a Settlor's estate or against Trust property, then in such event that person shall forfeit his or her share, cease to have any right or interest in the Trust property, shall forfeit all right to serve as Trustees, and shall be deemed to have predeceased Settlor without descendants.

Section 6.- Notwithstanding any of the general powers conferred upon the Trustees, no individual Trustees shall exercise or join in the exercise of discretionary powers over income or principal of the Trust for the individual Trustees' benefit or for the benefit of any person for whom the individual Trustees has a legal obligation of support.

ARTICLE XIII

POWER TO ALTER, AMEND, OR REVOKE

The Grantors reserve the right at any time or times during the Grantors' lifetime to amend, alter or revoke the Trust, in whole or in part, or any provision thereof, by an instrument in writing signed by the Grantors and delivered to the Trustees, provided that no such amendment or alteration shall in any manner increase the duties and responsibilities of any then Trustees in office without such Trustees' consent. From and after the Grantor's death the Trust shall be irrevocable and may not be altered, amended, or revoked.
