Dear Ms. Lewis:

Thank you for taking the time to assist me this morning it was greatly appreciated. I am forwarding this letter as a follow up to our discussion.

On the 29th of November 2001, I resigned my position as VP of Corporate Development and Corporate Officer of CAVU, Inc. My resignation was signed and accepted by the Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Brian Andrew, and was effective immediately.

In addition to my signed resignation letter, documents filed by the company as part of their Bankruptcy filing (November 30th and subsequent) demonstrate the acceptance of my resignation and constitute an official court record of my exclusion from corporate liability from that point forward. Chapter 11 (and later Chapter 7) filings were made in the U. S. Bankruptcy Court of the Middle District of Florida, Case # 01-11874-6J7.

As I mentioned when we spoke, the Florida Department of Revenue is moving forward right away in pursuit of their claims. I most urgently request that the corrected corporate officer information be updated as quickly as possible.

Thank you so much for your assistance in this matter.

Warm regards,

Patrick E. Lien
