Dear Sirs,

I have been notified that my ministry owes a fine to the state of Florida, for conducting business without the proper paper work. I found this out because we were in the process of filing all necessary paperwork with the state of Florida.

I misunderstood the question on some previous forms that I filed out. When asked what date I began conducting business, I put December of 99. That is not correct. We did not open our office until March 13, 2000.

I would like to apologize to the State of Florida, for this oversight on our part, and ask that you would lessen or drop the current fine against our ministry. I did not realize that I needed to have all the paperwork finalized before opening our office in Florida. Up till then, we were still conducting our ministry through our New York State office.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter,

R. Reis James
