Gentlemen:

We are requesting the late fee be waived, because the first notice received was September 11, 2002. Often our mail is delayed or not received due to the confusion of our mailing address, which happened in this case. Although the mailing address is correct, our location is in the Charlestown Navy Yard, in a district of Boston called Charlestown. We are amending the mailing address on our Uniform Business Report, to reflect the Charlestown Navy Yard, as the address on our letterhead indicates.

In addition, this form somehow landed in another insurance office in the building, which caused a large delay and we only received it last week. Please waive this one-time penalty fee in consideration, and we will pend our files to monitor the report due date in the future.

Sincerely,

Kathleen E. Muldowney
