Dear Sir:

During our last telephone conversation, with one of your representatives, I had to explain our current situation. We formed the corporation during the very last day of the year 1999, December 31 - 1999.

About six months later, the department of corporations in Florida notified us, that by mistake, the name that was issued to our corporation, had been given prior to someone else. Therefore, we started the process of changing the name of our corporation. We had paid all the necessary fees, though, up to that point. We didn't receive any other mailing but this last letter.

After the last telephone conversation, I was asked to send the amount of $ 150.00 and waive any possible penalties.

The previous corporation's name was:
ABMA INC

Thank you very much

Gene S. Miller, Inc
