Dear Sir or Madam:

In reply to your letter of August 14, 2000, a copy of which is attached to this letter, the following is for your review and consideration.

The correct date the corporation first transacted business in Florida has been set forth in item 6 of the application. The corporation was incorporated in Texas and has been transacting business in Texas. All income and expenses have been reported as Texas income and expenses. In anticipation of the commencement of business in Florida, the corporation paid wages to individuals in the third quarter of 1999 that were directly related to the start up in Florida. These wages were appropriately reported as Texas wages. However, this date was incorrectly used as the start of business in Florida. In fact, the business did not actually start transacting business in Florida until 2000.

We regret any inconvenience our error has caused.

Yours truly,

James Joy
President
