Dear Mrs. Shawn Logan:

In response to your letter dated February 27, 2001 and after my phone conversation with a Lady in your department, I am herewith submitting the following

AFFIDAVIT:

When filling out the forms to request filing for registration for Blazing Enterprises, Inc. I submitted erroneous information in respect to the date as to when Blazing Enterprises, Inc. started doing business in Florida. Blazing Enterprises, Inc. never conducted any business and was doing business solely in the Virgin Islands. I, Marianne Blazar and my husband, Marc Blazar, were shareholders of Blazing Enterprises Inc. and we mistakenly put the date we moved to Florida as the date Blazing Enterprises, Inc. started doing business in Florida.

Attached to this letter, as a proof for Blazing Enterprises, Inc. still doing business in the Virgin Islands, is a copy of our business license issued by the Government of the US Virgin Islands.

I therefore respectfully request that you reconsider the penalty fees, which are based on the erroneous information given by me.

With best regards,

Marianne Blazar
