Re: Sales Tax Due Last Quarter 2001

COPY

Gentlemen:

Enclosed find our check to cover Florida State sales taxes collected on a few sales we had for the last quarter of last year. I am terribly sorry for this delay, but in the future, all payments will be punctual. As it is now, I have my accountant in Two Rivers, WI still in possession of my records. I believe he has asked for an extension, but I will call Monday to have him let me know where I am. He has all the records. The amount of sales taxes collected since the first of this year again is a small amount, but nevertheless, is still due and payable. As soon as I get all my paperwork straight, we will be sending in the taxes due up to the minute.

I hope this will meet with your approval. If there are any further questions you may have of me or my accountant, please get with me as soon as possible. Again, I am terribly sorry for this happening.

Sincerely yours,

George Hansen
