To Florida Department of State,

I am writing this letter to request your mercy in filing this form late. As the owner/manager I have been quite unhealthy for years now and after trying many different circumstances I am forced to sell my business. It has been on the market for 12 years now - as of this year I have taken a turn for the worse and became mentally unable to handle the business. My assistant has done superb in taking over my bookwork without much notice at all - however - unfortunately this one piece of bookwork - the filing fee - was stuck in the checkbook and she did not know to pay this or send it in. Right now because of my condition the business is experiencing many hardships - financial being a big one. So I am asking that I not be penalized the $400<sup>00</sup> for filing late. If you look at my records of filing for the past 22 years I'm sure you'll find I have been prompt and efficient up until this point. Please make this exception this once for an honest mistake.

Thank you,

Game McDuffie
