Dear Sir or Madam:

I filed, via your on-line website, the 2006 annual report for The Minicomputer Company of Virginia (TMC) federal ID # 54-1035234. I did this even though TMC no longer exists as a corporate entity. I received a card from Florida giving me a file number (F02000005509) to use for this filing. I filed this in a timely manner on May 1, and paid the $150 fee via our company VISA card.

In June 2005, I submitted proof of the merger of TMC into HMS Acquisition Sub, Inc. federal ID# 20-2557509. All of the registration paperwork was completed in 2005, and I thought this merger had been properly recorded in the Florida records.

I am enclosing a copy of my June letter and subsequent filings. This letter is a request that the TMC filing be accepted as the annual filing for HMS Acquisition Sub, Inc, as I did not receive a file number for filing an annual report for this company.

I would also like to make sure that this merger is properly recorded. Please contact me either via email at Mlowery@hms-systems.com or via telephone at 804-359-5700 ext. 118 to discuss the status of HMS Acquisition Sub, Inc with the State of Florida.

Sincerely,

Michael H. Lowery
