Dear Ms Hood:

We regret that we have not received your mailings and notifications. We are a new company in Hialeah and have discovered that for several months of getting moved in and setting up our office, substitute and trainee postal carriers did not recognize our office as a place of business. Some mail was returned to sender. We have had numerous phone calls relaying this information to us requesting a corrected address. It is true, we would be absent from the premises for days and there was no sign of activity. We are still in the process of getting our business in order. It has taken much longer than we had first anticipated. We hope this failure on the postal carriers' part has been corrected.

We are complying with the "Frequently Asked Questions" of the file form F02000005710. We are including the $ 150.00 filing fee and the $ 8.75 for Certificate of Status change.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and thank you for your cooperation and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert Hill
