The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Board.

9. Procedure when Company finds purchaser

If the Company shall, within the space of 30 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a person willing to purchase the shares (hereinafter called the "Purchasing Member") and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, that he shall be bound, upon payment of the value determined as per Article 7, to transfer shares to the purchasing member.

10. Default by transferor to transfer

If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, makes default in transferring the share/shares, the Company may receive the purchase money and thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register of members as the holder of the share/s and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company shall be a good discharge for the purchasing member and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the proceedings, shall not be questioned by any person.

11. Notice of intention to transfer

If the Company shall not, within the space of 30 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a member willing to purchase the shares or any of them and shall not give notice to the proposing transferor in the manner aforesaid, the share specified in any transfer notice given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered by the Company in the first place to the members other than the proposing transferor as nearly as may be in proportion to the existing shares held by them respectively and the offer shall, in each case, limit the time within which if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined and may notify to the members that any member who desires an allotment of shares in excess of his proportion should, in his reply, state how many excess shares he desires to have and if a member/s does/do not claim their proportions, the unclaimed shares shall be issued for satisfying the claim in excess. If any shares shall not be capable without fraction of being offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, the same shall be offered to the members including the Directors or some of them in such proportion or in such manner as may be determined by the Directors. If the Company does not find any member willing to purchase shares within the said limit, the Company shall intimate accordingly to the transferor who shall, thereafter, be at liberty to transfer the shares to any person, approved by the Board, at a value not less than fair value.

12. No notice of any trust

No notice of any trust, express or implied or constructive shall be entered on the register of members or of debenture holders and the Company shall not be bound by or recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any shares and any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these presents otherwise expressly provided) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entry thereof in the Shareholder's Register.

13. Board's right to refuse the transfer

The Board of Directors may, at any time in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion and without assigning any reason whatsoever, to decline to register or acknowledge any proposed transfer of shares and their powers or discretion to refuse such transfer shall not be affected by the fact that the proposed transferor is already a registered member of the Company. Without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid powers, the Directors may in particular decline in any case in which the Company has a lien upon the shares (or any of them) or whilst any shareholder executing the transfer is either alone or jointly with any person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever whilst any money in respect of the shares desired to be transferred to any of them remains unpaid or unless the transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval of the transfer by the Board.
