I am writing this letter on behalf of my client, Tyler Jay Art, Antiques & Collectables, Inc., to request that your office will accept this application to transact business in the state of Florida. My client was unaware that this form needed to be filed when he moved his business to Florida.

We ask that any penalties associated with the late filing of this form be abated since this oversight was unintentional. My client has timely filed his 2001 Florida S-Corp tax return and the S-Corp Intangibles tax return. My client is also prepared to file any additional forms necessary as your office directs. We would appreciate your office letting us know if any other forms need to be filed in order to comply with the laws in the state of Florida.

Hopefully, you will agree that my client's failure to file these forms was an oversight since he has moved from New York State and was unaware of the requirements to register with the Florida Division of Corporations. If you have any questions or require any additional information, please feel free to contact me. Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully,

Alan R. Saiger, CPA
