5. Removal. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of any Preferred Stock then outstanding, any Director or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose, and then only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) or more of the voting power of all of the shares of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of Directors, voting together as a single class. As used herein, cause shall mean only the following: proof beyond the existence of a reasonable doubt that a Director has been convicted of a felony, committed gross negligence or willful misconduct resulting in a material detriment to the Corporation, or committed a material breach of his fiduciary duty to the Corporation resulting in a material detriment to the Corporation.

In the resolution setting forth the proposed amendment, the board of directors may insert a provision allowing the board of directors to later abandon the amendment, without consent by the stockholders, after the amendment has received stockholder approval but before the amendment is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.
