We understand you will not forgive the penalty owing on our account ($1150.00 less $70.00 that has already been sent in).

We ask that you consider the fact that my husband had a heart attack in July of 1999 and July of 2000. He had been handling the financing and business aspects of the company. At this time a financial advisor approached us and convinced us that being a corporation would save us money. We told him to go ahead. We do not know why he made us a Nevada corporation and thought he had done everything necessary in becoming a corporation. He did not tell us that we needed to register with the state of Florida and the first we knew of it was when you wrote to us. We can not now find him.

We would appreciate it if you would forgive this penalty..

Respectfully,

Judith A. Hayslett
