Dear Ms. Lunt;

In response to your letter dated July 18th 2003, Reference Number, W03000020552, please consider this the affidavit that you requested.

According to the Florida statute 607.1501, subsection 2 - I, the business activities of Carolina Tours Inc. do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of Florida statute 607.1501 subsection 1. All of our business operations involve interstate commerce, as each group from Florida ultimately travels to one of dozens of ski areas outside the state.

The only reason we attempted to register with the Division of Corporations was that we were instructed to do so by:

Sophie L. Thomas-Campfield
Regulatory Consultant
Florida Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services
2005 Apalachee Pkwy.
Tallahassee, FL 32399

I had mentioned this to you in my previous letter, dated July 8th, 2003.
At this point I need to request clarification from you because I am receiving two conflicting requests from two separate divisions of the Florida government.

Should you agree that we must not register as listed in the Florida statute mentioned above, please concede that our application contained erroneous information and discard the application, and return any filing fee. In addition; I will need a letter clarifying this statute so that next year when Carolina Tours Inc. must register as a seller of travel through the Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services, the application will not be delayed.
