[truncated] three the seventeenth day of March, nineteen hundred ninety-three, and Volume three hundred twenty-two of the Journal.—Fees: one hundred Colones.
 /signed/.—Mr. ANDRE GLUMA, of legal age, married once, a Belgian citizen, bearer of a passport of that nationality, in transit here, residing currently at Hotel [illegible], a businessman, who does not use a second last name by reason of his nationality, and Miss VILMA EUGENIA ROJAS VARGAS, of legal age, single, a secretary, a resident of Santo Domingo de Heredia, Identity Card four-one hundred ten-zero twenty-seven, they state: that between them there is no relation of kinship, that they hereby constitute a joint stock company that shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Commerce and, in addition, by the following clauses: FIRST: ON THE NAME: This corporation shall be of the fiscal year, and they shall meet in special session whenever called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or his substitute, and in this call the agenda thereof shall be set forth. The call may be waived whenever one hundred percent of the capital stock thereof is present and represented, and it is so resolved, noting said circumstance in the appropriate minutes, which must be signed by all the shareholders thereof in that event. The shareholders' meetings may be held in the company's domicile. EIGHTH: ON THE POWERS OF THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS: A) Appoint the administrators and revoke their appointments as may be appropriate; B) Fill the temporary or permanent vacancies in the Board of Directors; C) Resolve about the merger of the corporation with another(s); D) Dissolve the corporation in advance; E) Appoint liquidators; F) Discuss the Bylaws; G) The other powers pursuant to law, or to these articles. NINTH: OF THE ADMINISTRATION: Corporate business shall be administered by a Board of Directors comprised of three members that shall be the Chairman, the Vice President and the Secretary, holding office for the corporate duration. The in and out of court representation of the company shall be vested in the Chairman, the Vice President and the Secretary, with the powers of general attorneys-in-fact without limitations as to amount, with the powers indicated by Article one thousand two hundred fifty-five of the Civil Code, being able to act jointly or separately. The Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting every six months and in special session whenever called by the Chairman or the Vice Chairman. Their meetings may be held in the company's domicile and there shall be a quorum whenever at least two of its members. are present. Its resolutions shall be valid when adopted by a majority of those present, and in the event of a tie the person acting as Chairman shall cast the deciding vote. The Board of Directors shall keep a book in which shall be entered the minutes of their sessions and their date, and the number of those in attendance, indicating whether the resolutions are unanimous or by majority; the minutes shall be signed by the Chairman or his substitute. Shareholders or persons alien to the company may be members of the Board of Directors, and the Chairman and the Vice Chairman are expressly authorized to grant general, judicial or special powers-of-attorney to the person(s) that they deem necessary with the limitations and restrictions considered timely. TENTH: ON PROFITS AND LOSSES AND LEGAL RESERVE: Whatever reserve is deemed appropriate by the [General Shareholders'] Meeting shall be separated from the liquid annual profits upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors; the remainder, if any, shall be distributed in dividends in proportion to the shares of each shareholder; in the same way the losses shall be adjudicated, if any. ELEVENTH: ON THE OVERSIGHT OF THE CORPORATION: The oversight of the company shall be vested in an Inspector appointed by resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting, the appointment thereof being effective for the entire duration thereof and the post shall be governed in conformity with the provisions of the Seventh Section, First Book of the Commercial Code. TWELFTH: ON THE DISSOLUTION OF THE CORPORATION: The company shall be dissolved by the expiration of the duration thereof, or whenever any of the causes provided by Article two hundred one of the Commercial Code are produced. Once the dissolution thereof is resolved, the Shareholders' Meeting, with its legal quorum, shall proceed to the appointment of a liquidator that shall liquidate the assets thereof. The grantors hereof are constituted in a General [Shareholders'] Meeting, and by a unanimity of votes resolve and declare the following firm: a) approve the bylaws and hold the corporation as finally organized as of the said date; b) the following appointments are made for the period that begins on the aforementioned date: CHAIRMAN: the shareholder Gluma; SECRETARY: the authorizing Notary Public below, of legal age, married twice, residing in Santa Ana, [Identity] Card nine-zero zero
