Dear Ms. Cushing,

Please accept my apology for non payment of fees due to the State of Florida. The Corbin Group is a Virginia Corporation doing business in Florida. We sincerely thought we had completed all necessary paperwork.

As discussed we filed paperwork with the State and received a registration number of G02196900254 and also obtain Occupational licenses. We now understand that this is merely for "Fictitious" name filing and the Occupational license is for the county only.

We request any abatement of penalties as we truly were under the impression that we were in compliance with the State to transact business in Florida. We would appreciate your understanding that this omission was not intentional and we will remedy this situation in whatever manner you direct

We await your advisement on this matter.

Regards,

Richard P Corbin
