To whom it may concern:

I do not understand the lack of registration to do business. My accountant, who has since retired, was asked to process my papers quite some time ago. I am a one-man corporation doing residential design and drafting and quite honestly know nothing about these things. As soon as I received your letter I checked with Texas (where my corporation was started and remained until the local housing market crashed and I came to Florida to start over), they directed me to a company that handles such registrations. They have found all the paper work and it is enclosed with this letter. Hopefully this will clear up any problems. If you have any questions or need to talk with me please do not hesitate to call me at 407-292-1516 or email me at ronmorriscle@netscape.net or write me at the enclosed address in Orlando.

Sincerely and apologetically,
