Re: Coaching the Professions, Inc.
Ref number W05000047445

October 27, 2005

Dear Mr. Brian or whom it may concern:

My name is Michael Coulson and I am the accountant for Coaching the Professions, Inc., a Nevada Corporation that also conducts business in Florida. I assisted the 100% shareholder, Dr. Brian Beirl in setting up this corporation. Coaching the professions began doing business in Florida January 1, 2003. I reviewed my files and found a copy of the "Application by Foreign Corporation for authorization to transact business in Florida". I had sent this to Dr. Beirl by regular mail for him to sign and send along with a check to the Registration Section for the filing fee. Apparently, he did not receive this mailing and unknowingly operated his business without the authority to do so by the Florida Division of Corporations.

This is a first time offence for which he sincerely apologizes. However, it was not intentional. Dr. Beirl also operates a Dental Practice in Florida as an S. Corporation and has always been in compliance with the state and federal government tax and filing requirements.

The reason for this letter is for your consideration in the abatement of the $1,000 per year penalty that is being assessed on the Corporation.

I respectfully submit this letter without penalty of perjury.

Sincerely,

Michael Coulson CPA
