RE: Letter Number 805A00019528

Dear Mr. Bryan:

Per our conversation of several months ago, I am writing to correct information that was erroneously provided in our Application by a Foreign Corporation for Authorization to Transact Business in Florida.

Abacus Associates has never conducted any business in Florida as a corporation. The date provided in Question 6 was erroneously typed in by a member of our support staff and not noticed by myself before we submitted this application.

As you direct us to do in your letter (also attached), we have corrected this information in the Application itself, which we are re-submitting, and also we have attached a notarized affidavit stating that this information contained in the original application was incorrect and noting that we have not conducted business in Florida as a corporation.

You note in your letter that you have retained in your office our check totaling $78.75. Please let me know if we need to complete any other information before our application can be processed.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Janet Grenzke, Ph.D.
