Re: Reference No. W05000048667
Letter No. 305A00064689

Dear Mr. Bryan:

Thank you for your response to our application to transact business in the state of Florida. We lodged the application in response to a letter we received from your department dated September 23, 2005 advising that we were obligated to register to transact business. We were unaware of this obligation prior to receiving that notice.

We first started business in Florida in February 1997, which consisted of one customer. In October of 2003, we entered into a Tax Amnesty Agreement with the Florida Department of Revenue when we became aware that our business activities may be substantial enough to create a tax filing responsibility in Florida. In this agreement, all penalties were waived and we promptly filed all of the necessary returns and paid all tax due.

Similarly, we now respectfully request a waiver of the penalty fees of $9,000 ($1,000 per year from 1997 to 2005) from the Florida Department of State, as we were unaware of the obligation to register to transact business.

I have enclosed the following documents for your reference and review:

1. A copy of the Tax Amnesty Agreement.
2. A copy of the Florida Department of State letter dated 09/23/05.
3. A copy of the Florida Department of State letter dated 10/25/05.
4. An original certificate of existence for T-System, Inc. from the Texas Secretary of State.

Your consideration and time spent on this important matter is very much appreciated. Please feel free to contact me should you wish to discuss this matter further. You may reach me on (972) 503-8899, ext. 5566, or at mvandecasteele@tssystem.com.

I look forward to receiving your determination.

Respectfully yours,

Mark J. Van De Castele
