Re: Letter Number: 905A00070777

Dear Sirs:

We are in receipt of your letter dated December 7, 2005, in which you inform us of a penalty assessed under section 607.1502 (4).

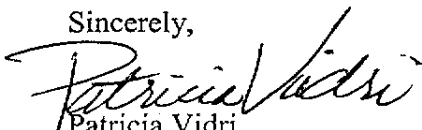

Please be informed that the only activity that this Corporation conducts in the State of Florida is the holding of an apartment unit which it occasionally rents through a real estate agent. The Corporation does not have any other asset, or does any other business; nor it has any officers or employees residing in the US.

We respectfully request that you abate the penalties and accept the filing submitted due to the following reasonable cause:

We had not idea, nor were we informed that the Corporation had to be registered with the State if it received rental income from the Apartment, specially when we do not carry out any of the rental or management activities. As soon as we received your notification, we proceeded to file the registration. We did comply with all our tax filing requirements, both Federal and State.

We thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Patricia Vidri
