PO Box 6327
Tallahassee, FL 32314

Dear Ms. Vewer:

We have received from your office the registration correction notice dated 2-20-2006. We have asked the Florida registered agent, our store manager: Mrs. Emmarie Yevnah to sign the application form. Now we are sending the application package to you today along with the certificate of good standing issued by the state of California.

Ms. Vewer, we have to admit our mistake of overlooking the registration procedure. We thought we were done after we had obtained sales permit, occupational license, and paid sales tax, property tax, occupational tax, merchant tax, and filed annual income tax return. However, we were wrong. We promise that it will not happen again.

Please kindly consider waiver of the penalty fees. We started business in Florida on Sept 17, 2001. The business plan had been projected largely on the high volume of tourists that the sunny State of Florida had attracted for so many years. But 9-11 changed everything. Right now we are struggling hard to stay in business, because the Florida stores have been in red since. We will appreciate greatly if a waiver could be granted to us.

Sincerely yours,

Jane Qin Zhou
President
