Purposes of the organization

This society is a civic, cultural and nonpartisan organization which, inspired by the traditional teachings of the Supreme Magisterium of the Roman Catholic Church, works in a legal and peaceful manner in the realm of ideas to defend and promote the principles of private ownership, family and perennial Christian values with their twofold function: individual and social.

It develops and fosters the religious and cultural heritage of Christian civilization by means of studies, publications, radio, television and other media of communication, and promotes cultural and intellectual formation of individuals and institutions through grants, scholarships and otherwise to individuals, institutions and organizations and by the promotion of scholarly research through grants to individuals, institutions and organizations.

This organization also operates through the publication and distribution of books, magazines, newsletters, pamphlets, public petitions, position papers, and open letters, including advertisements, and by organizing seminars and meetings devoted to the study of Christian civilization and especially to the formation of youth. This society may also carry out cultural exchanges with similar organizations in other countries, including the exchange of publications, studies and experience.

This corporations can do any other act or thing incident to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its members, directors or officers, except as permitted under Article 5 of the Not for Profit Corporation Law of New York State.
