RE: W08000047211

Dear Justin,

After careful research, I found out that in March 2006, The Michael R. Arneson Foundation, Inc. filed a Amendment with the state of Maryland to change our name from The Michael R. Arneson Foundation, Inc to Harvest Seed International, Inc. When we filed our 990 for the year 2006, we marked the box on our forms for our Federal name to be changed from The Michael R. Arneson Foundation, Inc. to Harvest Seed International. We have from that time on been filing our 990's as Harvest Seed International, Inc. When we called to check as to why the name had not been changed at the Federal level, they could not tell us why, but asked us to send a letter requesting the changed along with the copy of the amendment, which we have done.

I am enclosing this same documentation for you to review to see if we can move forward with our recognition in the state of Florida to conduct affairs. We have a fundraising event coming up in December and I really need to get this taken care of as soon as possible. Please let me know if there is something else we need to do.

Thank You,
