Subject: Maxine's Bookkeeping Corp
Ref. Number: WO9000015085

I have been the President of Maxine's Bookkeeping Corp in Michigan since the date of incorporation in May of 1997. In 2007 I moved to Florida and my clients wanted me to continue doing their books. They send their paper work to me each month, I process it and mail back the necessary forms.

As Michigan has no C Corporation Income Tax, it never entered my mind when I moved here that Florida has that tax until I received in the mail the Florida Corporate Income Tax Return for 2008. I filled out the return and paid the tax in a timely manner.

After sending the Application by Foreign Corporation for authorization to transact business in Florida along with the $70 Filing Fee, I received your letter dated March 31, 2009 stating that I owe $2300 to your office to cover both annual report/uniform business report and penalty fees.

I am asking if you can lower the penalty fees due to the fact that I was conducting business down here with my Michigan clients for only 2 months in 2007 and all of 2008 and was unaware of the tax liability to the State of Florida until December 2008. I will have no Florida clients. Only the monthly business for the few small businesses that I have in Michigan.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Maxine Bowman
