Dear Ms. Knight:

Thank you for your letter of November 17, 2010. We are submitting a corrected Application together with a certificate obtained from the State of New York, Department of State regarding the existence of Farmer Capital, Inc. We realized when we received the New York certificate that Mr. Farmer had provided us with an incorrect name of his corporation from New York.

Please process our client's application and return a verification to us that this document has been processed.

Very truly yours,

William P. Jacobson, Esq.

SUBJECT: FARMER CORP.
Ref. Number: W10000053917

We have received your document for FARMER CORP. and your check(s) totaling $70.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name listed in number one of the application must be identical to the name listed in the certificate of existence.

Unfortunately, the enclosed certified copy does not meet our filing requirements. We require a certificate of existence or certificate of good standing, which usually consists of a single sheet of paper, that clearly reflects the entity is a valid entity in its home state/country. You can obtain the certificate of existence or certificate of good standing from the same office that provided you with the certified copy.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6931.
