Re: Qualification of New York corporation - PJK Realty Corp.

Justin:

As you and my attorney Craig Little discussed today, the following pertains to the above referenced qualification of PJK Realty Corp., a New York corporation, which will be accomplished by and through an Application by Foreign Corporation for Authorization to Transact Business in Florida that was previously filed with the State.

The undersigned, the President and a Director of this New York corporation, simultaneously dissolved a Florida corporation with the same name as this New York corporation. The undersigned was the sole Incorporator, the sole Director, and President of the dissolved Florida corporation and this Florida corporation had not issued shares or commenced business and all of the Incorporators authorized the dissolution.

The undersigned hereby declares: they are the owner of both PJK Realty Corp., the New York corporation, and PJK Realty Corp, the dissolved Florida corporation; that they will not revoke the dissolution of the Florida corporation; that they waive any and all rights they have to reinstate this Florida corporation now that it has been dissolved; and they release the name of this Florida corporation so that the New York corporation may be immediately qualified to operate within the State of Florida.

Sincerely,

Patrick Keeley (handwritten signature)
