3. REGISTERED SHARES

SECTION 1

The Company shall issue to every member holding registered shares in the Company a certificate signed by a director or officer of the Company and under the Seal specifying the share or shares held by him.

SECTION 2

Any member receiving a share certificate for registered shares shall indemnify and hold the Company and its directors and officers harmless from any loss or liability which it or they may incur by reason of the wrongful or fraudulent use made by any person by virtue of the possession thereof. If a share certificate for registered shares is worn out or lost it may be renewed on production of the worn out certificate or on satisfactory proof of its loss together with such indemnity as may be required by a resolution of the directors.

SECTION 3

If several persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, any one of such persons may give an effectual receipt for any dividend payable in respect of such shares.

4. BEARER SHARES

SECTION 1

Subject to a request for the issue of bearer shares and to the payment of the appropriate consideration for the shares to be issued, the Company may, to the extent authorised by the Memorandum, issue bearer shares to, and at the expense of, such person as shall be specified in the request. The Company may also, upon receiving a request in writing accompanied by the share certificate for the shares in question, exchange registered shares for bearer shares or may exchange bearer shares for registered shares. Such request served on the Company by the holder of bearer shares shall specify the name and address of the person to be registered and unless the request is delivered in person by the bearer shall be authenticated as hereinafter provided. Such request served on the Company by the holder of bearer shares shall also be accompanied by any coupons or talons which at the date of such delivery have not become due for payment of dividends or any other distribution by the Company to the holders of such shares. Following such exchange the share certificate relating to the exchanged shares shall be delivered as directed by the member requesting the exchange.

SECTION 2

Bearer share certificates shall be under the Seal and shall state that the bearer is entitled to the shares therein specified, and may provide by coupons, talons, or otherwise for the payment of dividends or other monies on the shares included therein.

SECTION 3

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and of these Articles the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall be deemed to be a member of the Company and shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as he would have had if his name had been included in the share register of the Company as the holder of the shares.

SECTION 4

Subject to any specific provisions in these Articles, in order to exercise his rights as a member of the Company, the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall produce the bearer share certificate as evidence of his membership of the Company. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the following rights may be exercised in the following manner:

- (a) for the purpose of exercising his voting rights at a meeting, the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall produce such certificate to the chairman of the meeting;
- (b) for the purpose of exercising his vote on a resolution in writing, the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall cause his signature to any such resolution to be authenticated as hereinafter provided;
- (c) for the purpose of requisitioning a meeting of members, the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall address his requisition to the directors and his signature thereon shall be duly authenticated as hereinafter provided; and

- (d) for the purpose of receiving dividends, the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall present at such places as may be designated by the directors any coupons or talons issued for such purpose, or shall present the bearer share certificate to any paying agent authorised to pay dividends.

SECTION 5

The signature of a bearer of a bearer share certificate shall be deemed to be duly authenticated if the bearer of the bearer share certificate shall produce such certificate to a notary public or a bank manager or a director or officer of the Company (herein referred to as an "authorised person") and if the authorised person shall endorse the document bearing such signature with a statement:

- (a) identifying the bearer share certificate produced to him by number and date and specifying the number of shares and the class of shares (if appropriate) comprised therein;
- (b) confirming that the signature of the bearer of the bearer share certificate was subscribed in his presence and that if the bearer is representing a body corporate he has so acknowledged and has produced satisfactory evidence thereof; and
- (c) specifying the capacity in which he is qualified as an authorised person and, if a notary public, affixing his seal thereto or, if a bank manager, attaching an identifying stamp of the bank of which he is a manager.

SECTION 6

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, at any time, the bearer of a bearer share certificate may deliver the certificate for such shares into the custody of the Company at its registered office, whereupon the Company shall issue a receipt therefor under the Seal signed by a director or officer identifying by name and address the person delivering such certificate and specifying the date and number of the bearer share certificate so deposited and the number of shares comprised therein. Any such receipt may be used by the person named therein for the purpose of exercising the rights vested in the shares represented by the bearer share certificate so deposited including the right to appoint a proxy. Any bearer share certificate so deposited shall be returned to the person named in the receipt or his personal representative (if such person be dead) and thereupon the receipt issued therefor shall be of no further effect whatsoever and shall be returned to the Company for cancellation or, if it has been lost or mislaid, such indemnity as may be required by resolution of the directors shall be given to the Company.

SECTION 7

The bearer of a bearer share certificate shall for all purposes be deemed to be the owner of the shares comprised in such certificate and in no circumstances shall the Company or the chairman of any meeting of members or the Company's registrars or any director or officer of the Company or any authorised person be obliged to enquire into the circumstances whereby a bearer share certificate came into the hands of the bearer thereof, or to question the validity or authenticity of any action taken by the bearer of a bearer share certificate whose signature has been authenticated as provided in Section 5 above.

SECTION 8

If the bearer of a bearer share certificate shall be a company, then all the rights exercisable by virtue of such shareholding may be exercised by an individual duly authorised to represent the company but unless such individual shall acknowledge that he is representing a company and shall produce upon request satisfactory evidence that he is duly authorised to represent the company, the individual shall for all purposes hereof be regarded as the holder of the shares in any bearer share certificate held by him.

SECTION 9

The directors may provide for payment of dividends to the holders of bearer shares by coupons or talons and in such event the coupons or talons shall be in such form and payable at such time and in such place or places as the directors shall resolve. The Company shall be entitled to recognise the absolute right of the bearer of any coupon or talon issued as aforesaid to payment of the dividend to which it relates and delivery of the coupon or talon to the Company or its agents shall constitute in all respects a good and final discharge of the Company in respect of such dividend.

SECTION 10

If any bearer share certificate, coupon or talon be worn out or defaced, the directors may, upon the surrender thereof for cancellation, issue a new one in its stead, and if any bearer share certificate, coupon or talon be lost or destroyed, the directors may upon the loss or destruction being established to their satisfaction, and upon such indemnity being given to the Company as it shall by resolution of the directors determine, issue a new bearer share certificate in its stead, and in either case on payment of such sum as the Company may from time to time by resolution of the directors require. In case of loss or destruction the person to whom such new bearer share certificate, coupon or talon is issued shall also bear and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigation by the Company of the evidence of such loss or destruction and to such indemnity.

5. SHARES - ISSUE, TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION

SECTION 1

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum, these Articles and any resolution of the members of the Company any unissued shares of the Company shall be at the disposal of the directors who may, without prejudice to any rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class or series of shares, offer, allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of the shares to such persons, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as the directors may determine.

SECTION 2

The Company shall issue certificates in respect of its shares, whether registered shares or bearer shares. No notice of a trust, whether expressed, implied or constructive, shall be entered in the share register of the Company.

SECTION 3

The directors may refuse to register any transfer of shares in favour of more than four persons jointly.

SECTION 4

The registration of transfers of shares may be suspended and the share register closed at such times and for such periods as the Company may from time to time by resolution of the directors determine provided always that such registration shall not be suspended and the share register closed for more than 60 days in any period of 12 months.

SECTION 5

The executor or administrator of a deceased member, the guardian of an incompetent member or the trustee of a bankrupt member shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares but they shall not be entitled to exercise any rights as a member of the Company until they have proceeded as set forth in the Act and in Section 6 below.

SECTION 6

Any person becoming entitled by operation of law or otherwise to a share or shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any member may be registered as a member upon such evidence being produced as may reasonably be required by the directors. An application by any such person to be registered as a member shall be deemed to be a transfer of shares of the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt member and the directors shall treat it as such.

SECTION 7

The directors may make such rules and regulations as are in accordance with the Act, the Memorandum and these Articles and as they may deem expedient concerning the issuance and transfer of certificates representing shares of the Company and may appoint transfer agents or registrars, or both, and may require all share certificates to bear the signature of either or both of the foregoing. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the Company from acting as its own transfer agent at any of its offices.

6. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

The Company may hold once in every calendar year an annual meeting at such time and place as may be designated in the notice of meeting.

SECTION 2

All meetings of members other than annual meetings shall be called special meetings. Each meeting of the members shall be presided over by the Chairman of the board of directors (if any) or, in his absence, by such person as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or, in the absence of such person or if there shall be no such designation, by a chairman to be chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the members or, if he shall not be present, such person as may be designated by the board of directors shall act as such secretary or, in the absence of such person or if there shall be no such designation, a secretary shall be chosen at the meeting.

SECTION 6

Without prejudice to Section 17 below, at all meetings of the members two persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation, shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by the Act, by the Memorandum or by these Articles.

SECTION 7

No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the members unless a quorum is present. If such quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned from time to time until a quorum shall attend or to such time and place as the directors may determine.

SECTION 8

The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more notice shall be given of the adjourned meeting in accordance with Section 4 above. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give such notice.

SECTION 9

A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any meeting of the members and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

SECTION 10

A resolution put to the vote of the meeting of the members shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act or the Memorandum, a poll may be demanded -

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting; or
- (2) by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (3) by a member or members representing not less than 10 per cent. of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

SECTION 11

Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

SECTION 12

The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

SECTION 13

A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

SECTION 14

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

SECTION 15

A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

SECTION 16

No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

SECTION 17

If the Company shall have only one member then, provided that such member represents, in person or by proxy, a majority of the shares of the Company issued and outstanding, that member shall have full power to represent and act on behalf of the members of the Company and the provisions herein contained for meetings of the members shall not apply. A member as aforesaid shall record in writing by signing a note or memorandum all matters requiring a resolution of members of the Company and such act shall be deemed a resolution that has been carried unanimously by the members of the Company having the right to vote upon the matter in question. Such a note or memorandum shall be in lieu of minutes of a meeting and shall constitute sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.

7. VOTING AND PROXIES

SECTION 1

At each meeting of the members, if there shall be a quorum, a majority of the votes cast at such meeting by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon, and present in person or by proxy, shall decide all matters brought before such meeting, except as otherwise provided by the Act, by the Memorandum or by these Articles.

SECTION 2

Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any class of shares and to any provisions of the Act regarding joint ownership of shares, at any meeting of the Company each member present in person shall be entitled to one vote on any question to be decided on a show of hands and each member present in person or by proxy shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for each share held by him. A member shall be deemed to be present if he participates by telephone or other electronic means in the manner required by the Act in which event he shall be deemed to have raised or failed to raise his hand on a show of hands and to have voted either for, against or abstained on a poll as communicated by the participant by telephone or other electronic means, as appropriate, at the time of the vote in question. Any failure so to communicate by the participant shall be deemed to be a failure to raise his hand on a show of hands and an abstention on a poll on the vote in question.

SECTION 3

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any vote except at the meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

SECTION 4

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney, or, if such appointer is a company, either under the hand of any duly appointed director or officer of such company or under its common seal. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors shall from time to time approve or accept. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a member.

SECTION 5

The provisions of Section 4 above are in addition to and not in derogation of any other statutory or other provision enabling a company (wherever incorporated) which is a member of this Company to authorise a person to act as its representative at a meeting of the members of the Company.

SECTION 6

An instrument either appointing a proxy or evidencing an authorisation made in the manner referred to in Section 4 above shall be left with the Secretary not less than 24 hours, or such shorter time as may be stated in the form of proxy circulated with the notice of the meeting, before the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.
