TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Mrs. Sheila Young

I am writing you in regards to our company's attempt to become registered in the state of Florida by the division of corporations.

Our original application was rejected due to our disclosure that we have had an employee of our Kentucky corporation residing in the state of Florida since February of 2010. I mistakenly confused the date of our employees hire with the date we first transacted business in the state of Florida.

We were assigned a reference number of W16000007814. Please realize that the JRS Trucking company has not conducted business of any type in the state of Florida other than interstate commerce involving our trucking company having a vehicle drive through the state of Florida and having one of our drivers reside in the state of Florida.

Our company is being required by the Florida Workers Compensation Joint Underwriting Association to register with Florida's Division of Corporations in order for us to procure a Workers Compensation policy for our lone employee that is a resident of Florida.

Please again recognize our mistake in declaring that we have done business in the state of Florida since 2010 and please process our application to become recognized by the division of corporations in order for us to proceed and secure workers compensation for our based employee.

Sincerely,

Jerry Wiglesworth
