RE: Hydra 1303, Inc.

Dear Elver Sena Sosa:

Please find enclosed the following documents regarding the formation of Hydra 1303, Inc. (the "Corporation") drafted per your instructions:

1. Certificate of Incorporation
2. Statement of Incorporator naming the Directors
3. EIN letter attached
4. Paid invoice and credit card receipt

Briefly, shareholders own the corporation and elect a board of directors to run it for them. The board of directors oversees the operation of the corporation and makes the major decisions, including the election of officers and the delegation of appropriate decision-making authority to them. The officers transact the corporation's day-to-day affairs under the authority given in the By-laws and by the directors. Directors generally do not have the authority to transact daily business.

The Statement of Incorporator names the initial directors of the Corporation. The documents should be filled in by management and approved by local counsel. The officers of the corporation are then appointed by the Directors.

In addition to the EIN, please check with the jurisdiction where the Corporation will be doing business to determine if any state or city licensing or tax documents are necessary.
