SEVENTH: The Directors shall manage the business and conduct the affairs of the corporation and shall also have the power without the assent or vote of the stockholders, to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws of the corporation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors are expressly authorized:

From time to time to determine whether and to what extent, and what time and places and under what conditions, and regulations, the account and books of this corporation, (other than the stock ledger), or any other shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Directors, or by a resolution of the stockholder.

If the By-Laws so provide, and by a vote of a majority of the whole Board, to designate two or more of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee shall for the time being as provided in said resolution or in the By-Laws of this corporation, have and exercise any or all of the power of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of this corporation, and have power to authorize the seal of this corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

Both stockholders and directors shall have power, if the By-Laws provide, to hold their meetings either within or without the State of Delaware, to have one or more offices in addition to the principal office in Delaware, to keep the books of this corporation, (subject to the provisions of the statute) outside of the State of Delaware at such places as may be, from time to time, designated by them.

This corporation may in its By-Laws confer powers additional to the foregoing upon the Directors, in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon them by statute.

This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

EIGHTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between this corporation and its creditors or any class of them, and/or between this corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware, may, on the application in a summary way of this corporation, or of any creditors or stockholders thereof, or the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of Section 291 Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution of any receiver or receivers appointed for this corporation under the provisions of Section 279 Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of stockholders of this corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders of this corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this corporation as consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization of this corporation shall, if sanctioned by the Court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all creditors or class of creditors, and/or all stockholders or class of stockholders, of this corporation, as the case may be, and also on this corporation.
