Letter 721A00013035

Dear Mr. Solomon,

We acknowledge receipt of your letter date June 11, 2021, with which you return the documentation package we had submitted to register to be able to conduct business in Florida. Said documents were returned requiring a certificate of existence or certificate of good standing dated no more than 90 days prior to the delivery of the application to your DoS, duly authenticated by our Secretary of State.

Please note that with the original application package we did include a Certified Copy from the Puerto Rico Department of State, in original, with their embossed seal, dated May 17, 2021, certifying that the attached documents were a true and exact copy of the certificate of incorporation as filed originally on July 13, 2007. This document is once again attached with the package hereby returned to you, marked with 2 highlighted tags on the left and right hand of the document. The tag on the left-hand of the document, marks that embossed seal which although invisible to the eye, is there.

We are also attaching a Certificate of Good Standing dated as of today, June 22, 2021.

We hope these documents comply with your requirements.

Thank you.
