To Whom it May Concern,

Our business recently submitted business entity as a domestic company in Florida in error. Upon realizing this, we dissolved the domestic business entity and resubmitted request but as a foreign business entity. We received our foreign entity registration paperwork back stating we needed to release our business name as well as state we have no intention of revoking the domestic dissolution. We are releasing our business name to be utilized for the foreign business entity registration. We have no intent of revoking the dissolution of the domestic entity.

Please let me know if any additional clarification required.

Thank you,

Raquel Charrois

Vice President of Operations
