They have never received the initial form from you, they waited, then they called us, I did call your office explaining that the form was never received and finally now the report is being filed along with the check for $165.00.

Please take into consideration the fact that the above corporation was trying to do their best to have the report filed with you but for some reason the original report form was never received. Please compare if you have the correct address in your records.
