Re: Yonge Properties Inc.

Yonge Properties Inc. is a family business that is very small and my mother's address is the address of the company. I am an officer of the company, but I teach school full time and I gave the books to my mother to keep track of, she is 84 years old and does not remember receiving any forms to file for the annual corporation filing fee. I did ask her about it earlier in the year and she had not received anything at that time. I was counting on receiving the forms that we always get to remind us to remit the fees and form.

We never did receive any forms and now that school is out, I am trying to get things together. I called the Division of Corporations to find out the status of this and your employee told me that no fees had been paid as of yet. She said to access the web site and download the form and to write a letter explaining why, in hopes that you will consider waiving the late fee if we pay the $150.00 at this time. I would also like to have the address changed from 520 S.W. 28th Street, Ocala, Florida 34474 to my address so that I can keep track of all important correspondence from now on. Please note on this letter as well as on the form that the new address for Yonge Properties Inc. should be: 1347 S.E. 18th Place, Ocala, FL 34471. I am very sorry for the mix up and would greatly appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Betsy Yonge Roberts
