Gentlemen:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation with your office this morning, we are enclosing a check for $150.00 as we were instructed to do.

As discussed with your office, we have been traveling for the past several months and have never received a notice for filing this annual report. The second notice, which we received this morning, was in reality the first notification we have received. During our travels our mail was being held at the DeLand Post Office. Upon retrieving our mail, we found no notification from your office. As you will notice, in going through your files, you will find we have always promptly paid our annual report fee. We sincerely hope you will accept our filing fee of $150.00 so that we may maintain our fine record of payment on time.

Sincerely yours,

Irwin Brotman
