To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to request abatement of the penalty I am being charged for late filing. At the beginning of this year my sister was hospitalized, she had a double lung transplant last year, and was not expected to live. I was back and forth to Jacksonville until she finally passed. After this my Mother who helps me handle my books suffered a heart attack and was hospitalized. During this period of time I was in and out of the office. I had one of my waitresses helping me and she did not give me the paperwork my bookkeeper had given me to file the original form. My bookkeeper happened to be checking other accounts on line and noticed my annual report had not been filed. This is when I sent my report to you. Business has been down and I can't afford to the additional fees. With everything that has happened I am desperately requesting your understanding in this matter for abatement of the penalty.

Thank you,

Elizabeth Candy Adams
President
