Dear Sir or Madam,

I refer to a telephone conversation with an officer of your Corporation of this morning's date concerning a revocation of dissolution of the status of this Corporation, because your invoice had been returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. We had moved to a new address, as you will observe above, and we had requested our tenant to forward our mail to this address which is in the same neighbourhood. Apparently the tenant was remiss in his duties.

As suggested by your officer we are enclosing a check for $150.00 as we were assured that, under the circumstances, the penalties would be dismissed.

Yours truly,

Oscar D. Fonseca
President
